Vineyard and wine notes:

The grapes for this wine were grown by our good friend Doug Meador. Arroyo Seco, with its rocky sandy loam soils is an excellent place for producing fine white wine grapes. We fermented and aged this wine in neutral French oak and stainless steel barrels. It was bottled without fining or filtration. Pinot Grigio is actually a mutation of Pinot Noir and ours has the rich fruit flavors of pear and citrus that are typical of the varietal. The wine finishes with a refreshing crispness. It will pair well with antipasto, seafood risotto, pasta primavera and chicken dishes.
