Vineyard and wine notes:

Although it is the most widely planted red wine grape in Spain, Tempranillo remains sparse in California. Arroyo Seco features a relatively cool climate and rocky, sandy loam soils which make it an excellent place to grow this variety. We aged the wine in quality American oak barrels and bottled it unfinned and unfiltered. Our Tempranillo has hints of leather and vanilla in the aroma and delicious fruit flavors of plum and blackberry. Try it with ham, manchego cheese or grilled lamb chops.
