SYNOPSIS

A power couple within the Danish gourmet scene run the popular restaurant Malus in Copenhagen. The couple is willing to sacrifice everything to achieve their dream — getting the coveted Michelin star. Directed by Christoffer Boe, co-written by Tobias Lindholm and Christoffer Boe. Starring Katrine Greis-Rosenthal and Nikolaj Coster-Waldau (Game of Thrones).
ABOUT THE CAST

NIKOLAJ COSTER-WALDAU – Carsten
Nikolaj Coster-Waldau (born 27 July 1970) is a Danish actor, producer and screenwriter. He graduated from the Danish National School of Theatre in Copenhagen in 1993. Coster-Waldau's breakthrough performance in Denmark was his role in the film Nightwatch (1994). Since then, he has appeared in numerous films in his native Scandinavia and Europe in general, including Headhunters (2011) and A Thousand Times Good Night (2013).

In the United States, his debut film role was in the war film Black Hawk Down (2001), playing Medal of Honor recipient Gary Gordon. He then played Detective John Amsterdam in the short-lived Fox television series New Amsterdam (2008), as well as appearing as Frank Pike in the 2009 Fox television film Virtuality, originally intended as a pilot. He became widely known for his role as Jaime Lannister in the HBO fantasy series Game of Thrones, for which he received a Primetime Emmy Award nomination for Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Drama Series in 2018. He is a UNDP Goodwill Ambassador, drawing attention to critical issues such as gender equality and climate change.

KATRINE GREIS-ROSENTHAL – Maggie
Katrine Greis-Rosenthal, born Murholt Rosenthal, is a Danish stage and screen actress, known for A Fortunate Man (2018) and The Command (2018). She studied at The Danish National School of Performing Arts from 2008-2012.
