Pamela Hung & Sharon Cho Raise $21,048 for BCNC In 2016 Boston Marathon

Pamela Hung and Sharon Cho both exceeded their fundraising goals and raised more than $21,000 for Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center (BCNC) in the 2016 Boston Marathon. All proceeds will benefit BCNC's family-centered services for children, youth and families. Pamela Hung completed the Marathon in 4:15:32, and raised $10,741. This was her first marathon. Sharon Cho completed the Marathon in 5:32:27, and raised $10,307. This was Sharon's second marathon. Pamela and Sharon would like to thank their supporters for making this a successful fundraising event.

About Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center:

Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center (BCNC) is the largest nonprofit social service provider dedicated to Asian families in the Greater Boston area, supporting over 2,000 children, youth, and adults each year at three locations in Boston and Quincy. The mission of BCNC is to ensure that the children, youth, and families we serve have the resources and supports they need to achieve greater economic success and social well-being. BCNC helps families access the resources and services available to them, provide opportunities for them to learn and acquire skills, and create a community of mutual support and encouragement.
