“With BCNC’s help, we have been able to get the health services my daughter needs.”

—Po Chun, parent

When Po Chun and her family arrived in the U.S., they needed help with housing, employment, and learning English. Po Chun’s daughter, Anna, has special needs, and in her first year at school, she was mistakenly placed in a general education classroom. BCNC staff guided Po Chun to access the services Anna needed, empowering her to advocate for her daughter. Today, Po Chun’s family is thriving, thanks to the support they received from BCNC.

OUR VISION

What you helped accomplish in 2016...

Families and individuals are self-sufficient.

240
youth and adults received financial literacy education.

94%
of parents of BCNC Acorn Center for Early Education and Care learned about community resources from their teachers.

Families are strong, healthy, and safe.

139
parents improved skills through parenting workshops.

39
families in crisis gained support and skills to improve their family life.

Children have opportunities for school success.

100%

100%

In El Salvador, Elsa worked as an executive secretary. After arriving in the U.S., Elsa could only find work at Dunkin Donuts because of her limited English language skills. Elsa was determined to have the same job she held in her native country, so she turned to BCNC for support. Through the Job Training Program and English classes at BCNC, Elsa is closer to making her dreams a reality.

Neighborhoods are strong and cohesive.

individuals participated in civic engagement activities.

51
youth assumed leadership roles in the community.

“BCNC is a wonderful place because they help students grow and develop, as well as impact the community. Right now, we are learning. But after we leave here, we will help the community, the country, and the world.”

—Elsa, Adult Education student
