March 2017

Dear Friend,

BCNC Quincy will host its 3rd Annual Savor the Flavor, a community celebration and benefit, on Saturday, June 3, 2017 from 1-3 pm, at the Quincy Center for Innovation, 180 Old Colony Ave, Quincy. We invite you to join us as a sponsor of this delicious cause-worthy event.

Savor the Flavor is an annual fundraiser to support BCNC Quincy programs for youth, adults and families. At this event, you will enjoy a sampling of delicacies from local restaurants, vote for the “best flavor,” and hear about the work of BCNC in supporting the Asian community to become active citizens in the rapidly growing Quincy community. We invite you to join us as a sponsor of Savor the Flavor to showcase your leadership in inclusion and diversity, and your philanthropic partnership with the Asian community.

As the largest social service provider for Asian families in the Greater Boston area, BCNC responds to community needs by delivering holistic, family-centered, and culturally competent programs to over 2,600 children, youth, and adults each year. Your support will go to sustain the following critical programs in Quincy:

- Adult Education where students learn English to get better jobs or further their education;
- Youth programs that help youth develop leadership skills and receive college access support; and
- Family Services that help immigrant families cope with challenging issues and adjust to their new lives in the US.

Sponsorship benefits include tickets, visibility through multiple channels, networking opportunities, and recognition at the event. Please find attached more information. To be included in the program book, would you please respond by Monday, May 8, 2017. Should you have any questions, please contact jean.quintal@bcnc.net or 617-603-2540. Thank you for your consideration!

Did you know . . .

- Asians are the fastest growing racial group in Massachusetts.
- 1 out of 4 Quincy residents are Asian and 1 out of 3 Quincy Public School students are Asian.

Your sponsorship goes to support the Quincy community:

- Youth: BCNC provides high school students with leadership programs and workshops on college essay writing and the application process as well as financial aid counseling.
- Adults: BCNC serves adults with English classes with an education or career pathway that leads to higher education, a stable career, and financial stability.
- Families: BCNC serves families in crisis with case management and immigrant parents with support groups, parenting skills workshops and trainings.

About BCNC:

Founded in 1969, BCNC is the largest nonprofit social service provider for Asian American and Asian immigrant families in the Greater Boston Area, supporting over 2,600 children, youth, and adults each year at four locations in Boston and Quincy. The mission of BCNC is to ensure that the children, youth, and families we serve have the resources and supports they need to achieve greater economic success and social well-being.

Every year BCNC serves:

- 2,600 children, youth and adults and 400 families each year
- 84% are Asian
- 84% do not speak English as a primary language
- 73% are low-income
