

Audio Network Adobe Music Panel End User License Agreement

Terms and Conditions

The Audio Network Music Panel is a free-to-install plug-in. It is an independent extension to your Adobe Premiere Pro CC, and is owned and managed by Audio Network Ltd.

Installation of the plug-in allows you a licence to use the software, in compliance with the below terms, which you confirm your acceptance of when installing the plug-in. Please do not download any music tracks if you do not accept them.

- A gratis (free) synchronisation licence is automatically granted in respect of all tracks downloaded from the plug-in for private use and non-commercial sharing only.
- Under the gratis licence, you can synchronise the tracks with picture to create a production for private edit and demo purposes only, and this may not be distributed or broadcast publically.
- You cannot synchronise the tracks for any commercial purpose, such as for broadcast television, company websites, YouTube (or other streaming platforms) films, trailers or advertising, nor can you sell your production.
- You cannot give or sell the tracks to anyone else, or duplicate or distribute the unsynchronised (audio-only) music tracks in any way.
- All tracks downloaded must be licensed/purchased before being used for synchronisation in any production or project intended for commercial distribution.
- Music tracks are available to download at 96kbps mp3 compression. Music tracks are available to purchase at full quality WAV format.
- Audio Network reserves the right to limit the number of downloads, and may withdraw the ability to download at any time.
- No public performance rights are granted in respect of your production.
- You must register your details with Audio Network in order to access the tracks, but you can subsequently opt out of any communications.

If you have any additional questions regarding the terms of the plug-in, you can contact us by email on adobepprotech@audionetwork.com

Privacy. The Privacy Policy at <https://www.audionetwork.com/content/privacy-policy> governs any personal information you provide to us (note however that payments made on the plug-in are processed over a secure internet site by third party payment provider Braintree). By using the plug-in you agree to the terms of the Privacy Policy.
