

Heather O'Dell

Talented Tots Pre-K Teacher, Voice Coach,
Musical Theater, Young at Art

Heather is a certified and credentialed teacher born in Washington State. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from California Lutheran University. She has also taken additional K-12 education from Pacific Lutheran University and is a K-12 credentialed teacher through California State University, Northridge.

Heather has taught Pre-K-3rd Grade at a private Montessori school in Thousand Oaks, CA for 4 years, 4-5th grade for 5 years in the public Los Angeles Unified School District, and Music in the Conejo Valley Unified School District.

Heather has taught vocal performance, general music, after school music performance, stage presence classes, and has produced and directed many plays and musicals.

In 2012 she chose to focus her education skills on homeschooling. Her second home is Christ United Methodist Church in Franklin, TN where she is happily an active member in their Children's Ministry, Youth Ministry, and Music Ministry. She leads various youth choirs ages 2-12, teaches various Sunday school classes 3rd-6th grade, sings in worship services, and produces Church Musicals.

Since 2014 she has been part of the Elite Talented Tots team, and feels honored, privileged, and excited to be able to teach in such a wonderful and unique program for all of our tots. She looks forward to teaching your delightful children in the upcoming school year through Talented Tots, Homeschool Arts, Music, or the new Young at Art program. She lives in Brentwood, TN since 2006 with her husband Tim, and three children Jack, Avery, and Sofija.
