

Lillian Fisher

Violin Instructor

Miss Lillian was born and raised in Nashville, TN and has been playing the violin since the age of six. She received a B.B.A in Business Management with a concentration in Entrepreneurship and a Minor in Music (under scholarship) from Lipscomb University. Lillian has participated in several orchestras in the Middle Tennessee area including: Nashville Praise Symphony, Lipscomb University Chamber Orchestra, Curb Youth Symphony, and Cool Springs Youth Orchestra.

She was awarded a Music Service Award by Lipscomb University in 2016 and has had the pleasure of performing with Lauren Daigle, David Phelps, and has participated in various recordings in the Nashville area.

You can catch Lillian playing around town for special events and services at local churches, and with the Nashville Praise Symphony. She is excited to begin teaching at Elite and hopes to share her love of music with our little ones!

Lillian loves to bake, read, paint, and of course play the violin. She has two cats, Snuggle & Mittens.
