

Dean's Message

Dr. Sitikantha Mishra

Advisor-cum-Dean
Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism Management
Siksha O Anusandhan University
&
Chairman, All India Board of Hospitality and Tourism Management
All India Council for Technical Education, New Delhi, (Former Director, Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management, Gwalior)

The hospitality and tourism industry is experiencing massive growth internationally and becoming one of the largest industries in the world. This sector offers abundant scope providing not only jobs but also a myriad of other opportunities. But the long term viability of any industry, particularly the hospitality and tourism industry which operates in a highly competitive environment is dependent on the ability of its management to employ quality manpower. While hospitality and tourism has traditionally been an industry that emphasized hands on experience, the competitive nature of the business now requires a combination of higher education and experience to build a successful management career. So it is important that those interested to face this challenge should have the required qualifications, skill and professional development of global standard. Our mission is to prepare and provide next generation managers to the world's most dynamic and vibrant industry. We are committed to achieve it through education, training and research in collaboration with the industry leaders. Particularly the hospitality and tourism programmes both at undergraduate as well as post graduate level are well rounded with a combination of business and life skills that are in high demand with the employers.

Theories and practical which are essential components in our education system are adequately supplemented through industrial visits and OJT for attaining holistic understanding of the industry as well as enhancing the real life experience. A visit to our school will definitely help you to find out how exciting it is to be involved in the academic exercise part, of what has been widely accepted as world's most dynamic and grooming industry accounting for 5% of the world's GDP, 30% of world's services export and one in twelve jobs world-wide. The sustainable development of hospitality and tourism sector can integrate economic, cultural and ecological concerns through proper policies and effective implementation by the right kind of human resources which the Faculty of Hospitality & Tourism Management pledges strongly.

College life plays a significant role in shaping one's career and therefore, has to be used meaningfully and creatively. In fact, large percentages of eligible students for higher education do not get this facility. Seize your opportunity! Join our Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral Programmes for a bright career in Hospitality and Tourism Management.

Dr. Sitikantha Mishra