 Opening Hymn

If Thou But Trust in God to Guide Thee

1 *If thou but trust in God to guide thee,
with hopeful heart through all thy ways,
God will give strength,
whate'er betide thee,
to bear thee through the evil days.
Who trusts in God's unchanging love builds on the rock that nought can move.*

2 *Only be still, and wait
God's leisure
in cheerful hope, with heart content to take whate'er thy Keeper's pleasure
and all-discerning love hath sent.
No doubt our inmost wants are clear to One who holds us always dear.*

3 *Sing, pray, and swerve not from God's ways,
but do thine own part faithfully.
Trust the rich promises of grace;
so shall they be fulfilled in thee.
God never yet forsook at need the soul secured by trust indeed.*

Common Prayer, Lord's Prayer (unison)

Michael Hegeman

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Closing Hymn

Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken

1 *Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
He, whose word cannot be broken,
formed thee for his own abode;
On the rock of ages founded,
what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
thou may'st smile at all thy foes.*

2 *Round each habitation hovering, see the cloud and fire appear for a glory and a covering, showing that the Lord is near.
Thus deriving from their banner light by night and shade by day, safe they feed upon the manna which God gives them when they pray.*

3 *Blessed inhabitants of Zion,
Washed in the redeemer's blood!
Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
Make them kings and priests to God.
'Tis his love his people raises
Over self to reign as kings:
And as priests, his solemn praises
Each for a thank offering brings.*

About the Music

Recognizing Women's History Month, numerous contributions of women composers to the vast organ repertoire will be highlighted in the organ voluntaries this month.

Clara Schumann's Prelude and Fugue op. 16 no 2 comes from a set of three preludes and fugues, and was composed in 1845 in Dresden. It displays Schumann's remarkable talent as a composer, and demonstrates the effort she put into studying Bach and other church composers who excelled in these forms. The prelude starts as a soft meditation, and alludes to the piano texture. Followed by a robust and rhythmic fugue, it shows off the symphonic qualities and grandeur of the pipe organ. Given the title "Royal and Imperial Virtuosa" by the Viennese Royalty in 1837, Clara Schumann was one of few females in the 19th century who supported her children and family solely out of performing artist honoraria and teaching career. Most of her creative output happened before she married. After Robert Schumann's death she focused on popularizing his oeuvre and music of other composers. Her works have been brought to light in the last decades, and are being performed more frequently.

Scripture

John 4:1-26

Jesus and the Woman of Samaria

1 Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard, “Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John” 2 —although it was not Jesus himself but his disciples who baptized— 3 he left Judea and started back to Galilee. 4 But he had to go through Samaria. 5 So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. 6 Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” 8 (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) 9 The Samaritan woman said to him, “How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?” (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) 10 Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.” 11 The woman said to him, “Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? 12 Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?” 13 Jesus said to her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, 14 but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.” 15 The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.”

16 Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come back.” 17 The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’; 18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!” 19 The woman said to him, “Sir, I see that you are a prophet. 20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.” 21 Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. 22 You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. 23 But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. 24 God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.” 25 The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.” 26 Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking to you.”
