Go, my children with my blessing, never alone;
Waking, sleeping, I am with you, you are my own;
In my love's baptismal river, I have made you mine forever,
Go, my children, with my blessing, you are my own.

*No matter what people say,
Say or think about me,
I am a child of God.*

*No matter what the world says,
Says or thinks about me,
I am a child of God.*

*No matter what people say,
Say or think about you,
You are a child of God.*

*No matter what the church says,
Decisions, pronouncements on you,
You are a child of God.*

*And there is nothing,
Or no one who can separate,
They can't separate you from the truth that You're someone, you are family,
You are meant to be a child of God!*

About the Music

Today we welcome the Doxology Youth Choir from the Peachtree Road United Methodist Church in Atlanta, GA. They will lead us from the Chancel in liturgy and hymns, and perform two anthems: exciting "Cantate Hodie!" by Mary Lynn Lightfoot, and powerful Gospel-style "Child of God" by Mark Miller.

Today's prelude is based on some of the greatest Pentecostal hymns: "Like the Murmur of the Dove's Song", "Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit", "Spirit of God, Descend upon My Heart", and "Breathe on Me, Breath of God". Chorale Variations on "Come, Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire" is one of the most popular compositions by a Parisian composer, Maurice Duruflé. The variations depict the inspiring and contradictory nature of the Holy Spirit which "lightens our souls with celestial fire".

Scripture

Acts 2:1-21

2 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. 2 And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. 3 Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

5 Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. 6 And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. 7 Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? 9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." 12 All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" 13 But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

Peter Addresses the Crowd

14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Fellow Jews[a] and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. 15 Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. 16 No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

17
'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

18
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit,
and they shall prophesy.

19
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

20
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

21
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'
