*Opening Hymn	Holy God, We Praise Your Name 1. Holy God, we praise your name; Lord of all, we bow before you. All on earth your scepter claim; all in heaven above adore you. Infinite your vast domain, everlasting is your reign. 2 Hark! The glad celestial hymn angel choirs above are raising; cherubim and seraphim, in unceasing chorus praising, fill the heavens with sweet accord: “Holy, holy, holy Lord!” 3 All apostles join the strain as your sacred name they hallow; prophets swell the glad refrain, and the blessed martyrs follow, and from morn to set of sun, through the church the song goes on. 4 Holy Father, Holy Son, Holy Spirit: three we name you, while in essence only one; undivided God we claim you, and adoring, bend the knee while we own the mystery.	No. 4

Prayer of Adoration		Leon Kmiec
Call to Confession		Erik Khoobyarian
Common Confession and Assurance (unison)		Erik Khoobyarian
	Holy and merciful God, in your presence we confess our failure to be what you have created us to be. You alone know how often we have sinned in wandering from your ways, in wasting your gifts, and in forgetting your love. By your loving mercy, help us to live in your light and abide in your ways, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. Now hear our silent prayers of confession. (silence)

Musical Offering	Safe Within Your Arms	Mark Hayes
	Schae Chapman, soprano • Ilona Kubiacyk-Adler, piano Whether I'm right or whether I'm wrong, Whether I'm weak or whether I'm strong, Whether I'm sure or maybe confused, Feeling loved or feeling used: I know a place where I can go, Somewhere that winter winds don't blow. There I am warmed by loving arms, Held with care next to Your heart. And I'm safe within Your arms, Lord. I've become a child again. I've come back to the source of love, Where healing can begin. Though the world would say I must be strong and prove my worth by what I do, I will rest assured in Your embrace and find my strength in You.

*Whether I'm walking in the light
Or whether I'm stumbling in the night,
You are a god whose promise endures;
Though undeserved, Your love is sure.
When I am tempted to pursue
Plans that might lead me far away from You, Gently You call, "My child, come home.
I will never let go of one of my own."*

Common Prayer, Lord's Prayer (unison)

Michael Hegeman

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

or

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

*Closing Hymn

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

No. 435

*1 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea.
There's a kindness in God's justice,
which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven.
There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment given.*

2 For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind.

*And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful,
we would gladly trust God's Word,
and our lives reflect thanksgiving
for the goodness of our Lord.*

Scripture

Psalm 82:1-8

A Plea for Justice A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 God has taken his place in the divine council;
in the midst of the gods he holds judgment:
- 2 “How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah
- 3 Give justice to the weak and the orphan;
maintain the right of the lowly and the destitute.
- 4 Rescue the weak and the needy;
deliver them from the hand of the wicked.”
- 5 They have neither knowledge nor understanding;
they walk around in darkness;
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- 6 I say, “You are gods,
children of the Most High, all of you;
- 7 nevertheless, you shall die like mortals and fall like any prince.”
- 8 Rise up, O God, judge the earth,
for all the nations belong to you!

Luke 10:25-37

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

- 25 An expert in the law stood up to test Jesus.[a] “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 26 He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” 27 He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself.” 28 And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”
- 29 But wanting to vindicate himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” 30 Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and took off, leaving him half dead. 31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. 32 So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33 But a Samaritan while traveling came upon him, and when he saw him he was moved with compassion. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, treating them with oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him, and when I come back I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ 36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” 37 He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”
