HOMES & COMMUNITY

Glassboro is a growing community centrally located in Gloucester County, New Jersey. Less than ten-square-miles, it is small enough to impart a hometown feel, yet it still offers diverse neighborhoods, each with their own distinct character and architecture. Glassboro's housing stock reflects its history and evolution. Homes built in the late 1700s up until the mid-1800s can be found in Glassboro's downtown.

Glassboro offers great shopping, fine dining, and live entertainment, all along a walkable, tree-lined boulevard.

ACTIVITIES & DESTINATIONS

In addition to its five major parks that offer summer sports programs, hiking and biking trails, basketball courts, and athletic fields, the community is also home to the Glassboro Wildlife Management Area, allowing residents and visitors to witness nature's many wonders. Glassboro offers a great number of entertainment attractions and cultural destinations.

BUSINESS & ECONOMY

Glassboro's location contributes to its revitalization success. Route 55 is the community's main highway and provides connections to all major roads including 295, 676, the Atlantic City Turnpike, and the New Jersey Turnpike. The new Rowan Boulevard Downtown Development Project is a catalyst for Glassboro's sustainable economic growth.

Whether you're eager to catch a game or enjoy the great outdoors, Glassboro is the place to go.
