

GLASSBORO SOCCER IS BACK!

Glassboro Soccer is back and better than ever!

The Borough of Glassboro has partnered with RUSA to improve the soccer opportunities. RUSA's Leadership and vision will bring a whole new level of fun and excitement. The Borough of Glassboro is excited to be back providing kids with an opportunity to play the game they love. RUSA, one of the top soccer academies in the state with it's highly experienced, (Rowan University) professional coaching staff is ready to lead the way. RUSA has a well developed and formulated system for player and personal growth across all ages. The vision is to enhance Glassboro Soccer, and provide young athletes with the knowledge, skills, and experiences to prepare them for life both on and off the field.

The connection of The Borough of Glassboro and Rowan University coaching staff will enhance the experience for all of the players and families involved. RUSA owners Scott Baker and Justin Abbey are also the Men's Soccer coaches at Rowan University and they will be directing and overseeing the new program.

RUSA will serve as an important building block for The Borough of Glassboro community youth soccer development. RUSA is happy to work together, with love, service and care for all of the Glassboro players and parents. Click the link below to get started!
