Natalie B. McKenzie

For more than two decades, Natalie B. McKenzie has been dedicated to serving and supporting women, particularly those in underserved communities where access to healthcare, education and opportunities are scarce. That commitment shaped her vision for creating The Whole Woman, LLC (TWW), a multicultural wellness organization designed to help women live full, authentic, joyous and impactful lives through mind and body revitalization and self-revelation. Our wish for all women is that they live a healthy, well balanced and whole life.

TWW hosts “Events with a Purpose,” to raise funds for the underserved. To celebrate its fifth anniversary and Women’s History Month, in March 2019, TWW kicked-off its inaugural “Women Honoring Women” Luncheon and Awards Ceremony. TWW also hosts an annual fundraiser and toy drive, to support non-profit organizations in Bergen County, and beyond, that service women and children in need.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, TWW created “Quaran-Tea with Natalie McKenzie,” a “Live” broadcast that airs weekdays at 6PM EST on social media platforms. This show was created to keep people connected and provide valuable and useful information.

Natalie serves as Trustee of the Board for the Newark School of the Arts and has chaired numerous charitable events. She provides resources, raises funds and serves as Mistress of Ceremony for a variety of organizations and causes, and has received multiple awards for service.

In 2019, Natalie established Fighting Atrocities Against Women Worldwide (FAAWW), a nonprofit organization committed to providing a platform to raise awareness, resources and funds for non-profit organizations serving women and their children. Her goal is to live a healthy, authentic, purposeful and joyful life, while helping to positively transform the lives of other women. This philosophy begins in her home in Englewood, New Jersey where she resides with her husband Obie L. McKenzie.
