I understand that:

- I am applying for ownership at Mariposa Food Co-op under the terms and conditions contained in the Bylaws (available online or by request).
- My equity is refundable should I choose to leave the Co-op. The Board of Delegates retains the right to withhold funds when necessary to protect Mariposa's financial viability.
- Ownership rights and owner equity may not be transferred in any way as laid out in the Bylaws.
- Mariposa must be kept informed of any changes to name or address.

BECOME AN OWNER OF OUR CO-OP

To become an owner of Mariposa Food Co-op, complete this application and make your first equity payment at the register.

Equity is a one-time payment of $200 and solidifies your investment in the Co-op. Equity may be paid:

- In full, $200 upon joining
- In installments of $25 every 3 months until fully invested.

Do you receive government assistance? You may qualify for the Mariposa Owner Fund. The Owner Fund subsidizes $100 of the $200 equity investment and lowers equity installments to $10 every three months. To learn more, talk to a staff member in store or visit www.mariposa.coop/food-access.

After you make your first equity payment, you will begin receiving the benefits of ownership.

BENEFITS OF OWNERSHIP

When you join Mariposa Food Co-op, you become an owner of our food cooperative. Each owner has a voice and vote in decisions regarding Mariposa's future as well as many other benefits, including:

- The opportunity to run for the Board of Delegates
- The opportunity to receive patronage dividends during the Co-op's profitable years
- Discounts on select products each month through our Owner Deals program
- Discounts at our Community Partners
- The opportunity to become a working-owner and earn a 10% discount
- 10% discount on products ordered in bulk
- 10% discount during Owner Discount Days
- The ability to add credit to your account and hold up to $5 in debt against the Co-op
