

Gina Citoli Biography

Gina Citoli is a dynamic creative force that takes her audiences Beyond Entertainment into "The Extraordinary". She opens the doors to new worlds of expanded perception and unlimited possibilities with superbly imaginative songs and one women musicals.

Gina has written, produced and recorded over 60 songs about world peace, universal truths, empowerment, the environment, love, and transformation, she has written three full length one-woman musicals, three performance art keynote presentations and a children's show. Her premier production is "A Cabaret of Consciousness" which is a culmination of her life's work.

Gina has performed to standing ovations and rave reviews from New York's Battery Park and Den Design-Forum of the Museums Quarter in Vienna, to The Center for Spiritual Living in Seattle and the Beverly Hillshire Screening facility in Beverly Hills CA. to name a few. Gina's music has won awards, she has recorded two phenomenal songs with Grammy award-winning producer Barry Goldstein, her music has been used by NASA, in film for the environment and on international CD compilations for world peace.

Her theater background includes training as a dancer at Ivan Novikoff School of Dance and Cornish School in Seattle, Los Angeles Ballet Academy, and Luigi's Jazz Centre New York City. Her theater training came from performing in numerous theatrical productions in Seattle and NYC as well as training at The Actors Workshop in LA.

Besides being a talented and versatile performer, singer and composer/playwright Gina is also certified in various energetic healing modalities and is a Nutritional Herbalist. She has a background in the metaphysical and intuitive arts, Neuro science, Human Consciousness and Mastery Level Teachings. This background is the foundation for all her shows and music.

www.GinaCitoli.com