The National Dance Education Organization (<http://www.ndeo.org/>) has announced that David Dorfman (<http://www.dance-teacher.com/2014/03/david-dorfman/>) will be 2015 Annual National Conference Keynote Speaker. He will speak at the Grand Closing Reception and Dinner, held on Saturday, October 10, 6:30–8:30 pm.

Dorfman is a professor and the chair of the dance department at Connecticut College and founded his company David Dorfman Dance in 1987. He holds a BS in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis and an MFA in dance from Connecticut College, and he received a 2005 Guggenheim Foundation fellowship, in addition to numerous other honors and awards in the dance field.

This year's conference, Focus on Dance Education: Engaging in the Artistic Processes—Creating, Performing, Responding, Connecting, takes place Oct. 7–11 at the Pointe Hilton Tapatio Cliffs Resort and nearby venues in Phoenix. For more info, visit: ndeo.org/conf2015 (<http://ndeo.org/conf2015>).
