Are you Disabled and/or Elderly and Not Receiving Medi-Cal Benefits?

If you are aged (65+) or disabled and are not eligible for the SSI program, you may be able to get Medi-Cal through the Aged & Disabled Federal Poverty Level program.

You may be eligible for Medi-Cal with no share of cost if you meet the following requirements:

- You must be disabled and/or elderly (65 years or older);
- Your countable income must be $1,271 monthly or less if you are single or $1,720 monthly or less if you are part of a couple¹, and;
- Your liquid resources must be less than $2,000 if you are an individual and less than $3,000 if you are a couple²

If your monthly income exceeds the above amounts you may still want to sign up for Medi-Cal, but you will have a share of cost. An information sheet about eliminating your share of cost is available.

How do I sign up?

Revised February 2020

¹ Medi-Cal applies certain deductions when determining countable income, so some income may not count toward this limit.
² These income dollar amounts reflect 2020 but changes yearly.
