DISCLAIMER, CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY, & GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
I certify that my answers are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
I understand that: tuition must be paid in full two weeks prior to the start of training; refunds will be made up to two weeks prior to the start of training, minus processing fee of $200; if it is necessary to withdraw from training, the student will be able to take the remaining portion at a future teacher training; there are no refunds for books or supplies received by the student.
I understand that: to graduate, a student must complete all requirements, including class participation, hands-on practice, written and oral assignments, and community service; 100% attendance is required, but if it is necessary to miss a class, extra credit opportunities are available; it is the student's responsibility to avail him/herself of these opportunities; students are expected to arrive on time and stay until the conclusion of class; cancellation of classes due to weather may occur, in which case additional hours will be added toward the end of the program; to graduate, all financial commitments must be met.
