To whom it may concern,

Michael Scott Davidson is the consummate newsman, a person who takes great pride and passion in his craft and dedicates his life to finding a good story and then making it his own.

I worked with Mr. Davidson at the Sarasota Herald-Tribune and saw him turn an otherwise sleepy beat into a constant source of interesting copy for our newspaper. He not only dominated daily coverage of the City of North Port, Florida, but exposed dangerous practices within its police department through his investigative reporting – reporting that went above and beyond his job description and proved him to be a valuable asset to our newsroom.

Furthermore, Mr. Davidson constantly sought ways to incorporate the latest technology into his reporting and was always eager to learn skills that would benefit his readers but also help him become a better journalist.

I highly recommend Mr. Davidson for employment and invite you to contact me should you have any questions. I can be reached by phone at (941) 361-4901 or via email at emily.lecoz@heraldtribune.com.

Best regards,

Emily Le Coz
Deputy Investigations Editor
