

MARTIN COUNTY

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Stuart Air Show and Martin County Community Foundation Joint Press Release

Contact: Elisabeth Glynn
Phone: 772-781-4882 (o)
443-803-7770 (c)
Email: Elisabeth@StuartAirShow.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STUART AIR SHOW MAKES CONTRIBUTION TO MARTIN COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Martin County, Florida: Annually, the Stuart Air Show makes several charitable contributions to local nonprofit and community organizations. Held this past fall, the 25th Anniversary Stuart Air Show brought in record-breaking attendance.

“We’re thrilled to have had the most crowds we have ever had at the air show,” said Don McGlynn, Stuart Air Show Board President. “The success of the event directly enables us to make our charitable contributions.”

Among several designated recipients is the Martin County Community Foundation, a nonprofit organization whose mission is to facilitate philanthropy. The Foundation customizes its services to provide donors with a personalized philanthropy plan, ensuring that an investment will directly benefit the donor’s causes and/ or organizations of choice. By connecting the donors with causes they care about and providing leadership on important issues, the Foundation seeks to create a lasting, positive change in Martin County.

The donation from the Stuart Air Show is designed to help the broad-based needs of the community.

“The Stuart Air Show is a true community asset. As a nonprofit organization, its economic and civic impact is of critical benefit to our region. This gift supports our Common Good Fund for Martin County, which helps to address a broad array of important community needs in our local area,” said Jillian C. Vukusich, executive director of the Martin County Community Foundation.

The 2015 Stuart Air Show will be held on October 30 – November 1 at Martin County Airport – Witham Field.

“We’re looking forward to another great success this year,” said Michael Roberts, Stuart Air Show Vice President. “The U.S. Army Golden Knights will be performing here for the first time ever which will definitely attract spectators.”

Additional nonprofits and organizations benefiting from the Stuart Air Show include the Road to Victory Military Museum, Special Olympics, ARC of Martin County, Civil Air Patrol, Boy Scouts of America, and many other deserving community charities.

Images:

1. (L-R) Don McGlynn, Stuart Air Show President; Jillian Vukusich, Martin County Community Foundation Executive Director; and Michael Roberts, Stuart Air Show Vice President.

About the Stuart Air Show

The Stuart Air Show is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that promotes a safe, family entertainment event, highlights aviation, and provides financial support to its benefiting non-profit organizations including: Martin County Community Foundation, Road to Victory Military Museum, Special Olympics, ARC of Martin County, Civil Air Patrol, Boy Scouts of America, as many well other deserving community charities. The air show offers many different types fundraising opportunities for local non-profit organizations and community groups. Nearly a dozen organizations benefit from the show each year.

If you would like more information about the Stuart Air Show, please contact Elisabeth Glynn at 772-781-4882 x402 or at Elisabeth@stuartairshow.

www.stuartairshow.com
www.facebook.com/stuartairshow
@stuartairshow
#stuartairshow

About the Martin County Community Foundation

The mission of the Martin County Community Foundation is to facilitate philanthropy. We serve as a vehicle for donors to make positive, long-term change by supporting causes and organizations they are passionate about. Established in 1988, The Martin County Community Foundation is a nonprofit charitable foundation consisting of named funds established by many separate donors to support the common good.

www.yourmccf.org
www.facebook.com/yourmccf
@yourmccf