FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Take Advantage of Dog Days of Summer Savings – Stuart Air Show Style

STUART, FL (June 30, 2017) —July brings a lot of marvels—the Fourth of July, hot sultry temperatures, and unique holidays like National Hot Dog, National Ice Cream and National Picnic month. And, on July 6 (International Kissing Day), it brings an end to the Stuart Air Show’s limited pre-sale General Admission pricing for the November 4-5, 2017 show. So, don’t kiss those Air Show savings away, take advantage of the pre-sale pricing before they glide away.

Until July 6, general admission pre-sale tickets are $10 (adults). On International Kissing Day (July 6) ticket pricing increases to $15. Pre-sale general admission tickets may be purchased online at www.StuartAirShow.com. General admission tickets at the gate this year will be $25.

Don’t miss this year’s premier act, Screamin’ Sasquatch, sponsored by Jack Link’s, a 1929 Taperwing Waco bi-plane with a jet engine that allows the plane to fly vertically, flip, tumble, and hammerhead torque roll. Also new this year is the Batcopter and Bat Mobile. Loved by all ages wherever it goes, this crime fighting helicopter flew and was filmed in the original 1966 BATMAN movie and the original television series BATMAN.

And because July barbeques are often celebrated with cold craft beers, celebrate July in November at the Stuart Air Show by also purchasing an upgraded ticket to the Air Show’s Florida Craft Beer Experience. This upgraded “craft experience” let’s Stuart Air Show fans join brewery representatives from both Walking Tree and Tequesta Brewing Company for a selection of unique and delicious craft beers—two complimentary—and special flight-line seating. The upgraded ticket is $25 per person (good for one day). Availability is limited.

Other upgrade tickets, such as premium parking, special spectator seating, Friday night’s Dirty Flight Suit Party and more are also now available for purchase on the website (www.StuartAirShow.com). Don't delay, take advantage of summer savings by buying your tickets today!

The 2017 Stuart Air Show is grateful to Platinum Sponsors Pratt & Whitney—A United Technologies Company, Sikorsky Aircraft—A Lockheed Martin Company, and Martin County, Witham Field, and Gold Sponsors Alpha Zeta, and Heineken for helping to ensure that the 28th consecutive air show is another roaring success.
