October 13 - 22, 2023

Tuscany in the Fall. We probably don’t need to say any more than that and, if we tried, words could not really do justice to the sights, smells, tastes, and all the other sensations that combine to create the Tuscan experience.

This tour is more about the region, not just about Florence. Of course, we’ll spend a day in the city (and more if you choose) — it would be rude not to visit the “Cradle of the Renaissance” when we are so close — but we’ll make our base in the thermal spa town of Montecatini Terme just up in the hills overlooking the plain of the River Arno.

From here a variety of excursions will take us through the surrounding area before we move on to discover the delights of Umbria.

We’ll experience a wonderful balance of guided days and free time to explore on our own as we make our base in Perugia, steeped in Etruscan history and boasting one of the grandest squares in Italy. Quintessential medieval houses and vaulted passageways beckon us to wander through time, and the glorious Galleria Nazionale reveals Umbria’s greatest collection of paintings. Well-preserved historical towns like Gubbio stand as age-defying marvels of antiquity, whether we’re admiring a 2,000-year-old theater or drifting through Etruscan ruins. We’ll also spend a day in St. Francis’ town of Assisi.

This October, join fellow Randolph College Alumni and friends, for a week in the heart of Italy!

Monday, October 16th - A full day excursion today takes us to the coast to explore the region known as the Cinque Terre (the Five Lands). The name comes from the five towns that are perched along this stretch of cliffs as they tumble into the sea and it is a area of such unspoiled natural beauty that it was added to UNESCO’s World Heritage List in 1997. Along the way, we’ll stop for lunch in Portovenere and then take the train line along the coast that joins the five towns—there is no road!—before returning to our hotel for dinner. (B, D) Overnight: Montecatini

Tuesday, October 17th - Our journey today takes us into the heart of Tuscany and the dreamy landscapes that most powerfully evoke romantic Italy. We’ll visit San Gimignano for a walking tour of this beautiful medieval city Known as San Gimignano of the Fine Towers, the whole town in now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The intact city walls contain a dazzling array of medieval buildings and tower houses. The rich merchants of the town competed with each other as to who could build the tallest! We’ll take a walking tour of the historic center and visit the Collegiata di Santa Maria Assunta - the Cathedral of San Gimignano - and the Palazzo Pubblicó. After time for lunch, this afternoon we drive to Perugia where dinner is included this evening at our hotel. (B, D) Overnight: Montecatini

Wednesday, October 18th - A day exploring Perugia, the capital of the region of Umbria. Perugia is an ancient city dating back to the Etruscan era and home to one of the first universities in the world. Your walking tour with a local guide will show you the Palazzo del Priori, including the national Gallery of Umbrian Art and the chapel of San Severo, with a wonderful fresco by Raphael. The medieval and Renaissance areas of this lovely city above the central Tiber valley offer vistas that confirm Henry James’s description of Perugia as the “little city of infinite view.” The afternoon is free to wander, sampling exquisite Perugina chocolates as you explore Piazza IV Novembre, one of the grandest squares in Italy, with its imposing Priors’ Palace and admirably proportioned Great Fountain from the 13th century. Leading off from the far end of the square is the picturesque Via Maestà delle Volte, its medieval houses and vaulted passageways brimming with secrets. This evening dinner is included at a local restaurant. (B, D) Overnight: Perugia

Thursday, October 19th - It’s a short journey this morning to Assisi, birthplace of St. Francis, and home to the extraordinary Basilica of St. Francis, one of the greatest monuments to 13th-14th century Italian art. The damage caused by the 1997 earthquake has largely been repaired and the two churches, Upper and Lower, are truly awe-inspiring as you will witness during our guided tour. There will be free time for lunch and exploration before we return to Perugia. (B) Overnight: Perugia

Friday, October 20th - Just over a stretch of the Apennines stands Gubbio, the best preserved of all medieval towns. With its roots in the 6th century BC, this picturesque village boasts a sprawling 2,000-year-old theatre just outside the town walls, and is home to the fascinating 2,000-year-old Eugubine bronze tablets, the Rosetta Stones for Umbrian culture written in Etruscan and Latin. At the top of the town, the Palazzo Ducale and the Duomo face off against each other—the former notable for its lovely Renaissance courtyard; the latter a 13th-century graceful construction of lavender-gray brick with a magnificent interior. In the afternoon we’ll continue on to Fabriano, famous since the 13th century for its manufacture of paper, with its reconstructed, fully operational medieval workshop. We return to Perugia for a free evening. (B) Overnight: Perugia

Saturday, October 21st - After a leisurely breakfast, we depart for Montepulciano for a wine tasting before continuing back to Montecatini for our final night and farewell dinner. (B, D) Overnight: Montecatini

Sunday, October 22nd - Morning transfers back to either Pisa or Florence Airport for connecting flights to the US. (B) Overnight: Home

*Key to included meals: B - breakfast, L - lunch, D - dinner
