Please Read Carefully

I understand that, with my authorization, an investigation may be made whereby information is obtained regarding my character, previous employment, general reputation, educational background, credit record and/or criminal history, subject to applicable federal, state, and/or local laws. In the event of employment, I understand that false or misleading information given in my application or interview(s) may result in immediate dismissal. I understand, also, that I am required to abide by all rules and regulations of Rebel Hospitality.

I understand and agree that if employed, the employment will be "At Will." That is, either I or Rebel Hospitality may end the employment relationship at any time, for any reason, or for no reason. I understand that receipt of this application by Rebel Hospitality does not imply employment and that this application and/or any other Rebel Hospitality documents are not contracts of employment.

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Some states prohibit discrimination because of age. The age discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 prohibits the request of any information on this form. This information will not be used to discriminate against possible employment. We have designed this form to comply with State and Federal Fair Employment Practice Laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of applicant's sex or minority status. Questions directly or indirectly reflecting such status have been included ONLY where needed to determine a bona fide occupational qualification or for other permissible purposes. Such questions are appropriately noted on the application.

A record of conviction will not necessarily bar the applicant from employment and the appointing authority (employer) will consider factors such as: 1) the length of time that has passed since the offense; 2) the age of the applicant at the time of the offense; 3) the severity and nature of the offense; 4) the relationship of the offense to the position for which the applicant has applied; and 5) evidence of the rehabilitation of the applicant.
