March 2018

Cristosal in Washington D.C.

Executive Director Noah Bullock and Strategic Litigation Director David Morales are in Washington D.C. February 26-March 2. Find out more about their trip here.

Look for updates this week on Facebook and Twitter! #CristosalattheCapital

Our 2017 Impact
for local protection and assistance programs in ten communities.

None of this would be possible without dedicated supporters like you. Check out our full 2017 Impact Report to see more!

Human Rights and Faith

What does Lent mean to you? Episcopal priest Anne Thatcher shares her reflections on human rights and faith this season.
Seeking Justice for Historic Massacres

EL CALABOZO

The Atlacatl Battalion massacred hundreds of men, women, and children on August 22, 1982, in El Calabozo, a rural village in central El Salvador. Witness Amado Carrillo tells about more than 300 people who died that day. Read more about this newly reopened case.

EL MOZOTE

- New witness testimonies
- Barriers to historical archive information
- Raising awareness and garnering support in Washington D.C.

Don't Want to Miss a Thing?

BRAND NEW: Get an email update every time we post a news story on our website. Sign up here.

The Reverend Canon George F. Woodward III: An example of leadership and service

The Reverend Canon George F. Woodward III Operating Fund was created in January 2017 to honor Woodward's 11 years of leadership and service on Cristosal's Board of Directors. The fund raised over $25,000 in its first year. Read more about Woodward's steadfast commitment to our mission here.

Monthly Sustainer Donors provide crucial yearlong support for our mission!