

The Purpose Octagon

Eight Facets of Purpose

The 4 Being Dimensions of Soul Purpose

Vision: The end result of successfully embodying your purpose and deepest aspiration that you hold for an evolved world.

Examples: “I envision a humanity engaging with their unused evolutionary potential.” “I envision a joyful humanity.”

Values: The essential ideals for which you want your life to stand.

Examples: “Life is an opportunity to grow and the universe desires our growth. “Laughter is precious medicine: we should support culture to value it more.” “Laughter heals the world.”

Core Powers: The natural soul level abilities that you were born with.

Examples of innate aptitudes: speaking, writing, listening, challenging, leading, numbers, artistic, mechanical, empathy, creativity, motivating, organizational, intellectual, spatial, physical, logical, knowledge, self discipline, teamwork, problem solving, management, etc. For instance, what are you obsessed by? Ex: organizing things (philosophy, kitchen cans)

Essence: The core of who you are without doing anything. You are your purpose, even when you aren't acting. The effortless radiance of your being.

Examples: “Evolution, Wholeness.” A comedian's essence might be “humor.” Jesus Love , Buddha Illumination , Gandhi Justice .

The 4 Becoming Dimensions of Soul Purpose

Giveaway: What you actually do to people to transform them. This is your unique transformative process, aka: your gift, offering, contribution or blessing.

Examples: "I offer whole person midwifery for those who seek their wholeness." "Tell jokes."

Task: A mission, calling, or (seat) assignment that you undertake to support your vision. Visions and Tasks are goals, Giveaways are processes. Your Giveaways are what you do to support your Tasks, and Tasks move you towards your Vision.

Examples: "I feel called to inspire humanity to engage unused evolutionary potential." "Create Purpose Guides Institute." "I feel a calling to bring joy to the world through humor."

Message: A single fundamental truth you are designed to propagate.

Examples: "You are the evolutionary impulse wanting to bring more Goodness, Truth and Beauty into the world." "Stop taking every moment so seriously. Relax. Laugh."

Delivery System: the outward system (job, career) through which you offer your gifts to the world. Examples: "Purpose Guide, Psychotherapist" "Comedian."
