

I SPY LISTS FOR ABECEDARIAN LEVEL B1

These practice sheets are designed to be used while a student is working in the B1 workbook. The sheets provide additional practice to help students master and retain the letter/sounds presented in B1 and to reinforce the habit of sounding out unfamiliar words. The title of the practice sheet corresponds to the Unit in B1 during which you should use the sheet. There are no practice sheets to be used while the student is working on Units 1 and 2.

Review with your student the target graphemes listed in the directions for each sheet. After reviewing the target letter/sounds with your student, have her underline or highlight these graphemes in the word. After she highlights a grapheme, she should read the word. It is not necessary that the student tap-and-say a word unless she has any difficulties reading it.

Students should learn the primary sound for each grapheme as indicated in the key word chart below.
