Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

A yearly scholarship sponsored by a volunteer chorale made up of singers from Los Alamos, Santa Fe, and surrounding areas. The award is intended to assist someone dedicated to vocal singing in his or her college pursuits. The applicant does not have to plan to major in music, but a strong past achievement and future interest must be demonstrated.

Value of Award: $500.00

Eligibility: Graduating Seniors who plan to continue their vocal musical pursuits in college

Submission:
Given the need for all of us to reduce our time in public spaces, we ask that you submit your application materials by email. Include in the subject line of your application email “Scholarship Application”. Please send your application to Anne Bradley, ann14dav@comcast.net by 11:59pm on April 20th.

Award Announcements:
Scholarships will be awarded by April 27, 2020.

For further information, please contact Anne Bradley, Education & Outreach Chair at (505) 699 9065 or ann14dav@comcast.net.

Application on pages 2 and 3.
Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

Student Name: ________________________________________________________________

Student Age: _____

High School attended: ________________________________________________________

Mailing Address: ____________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

Phone Number: __________________________

Other Awards/Scholarships given (name and amount):

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

Name and Phone Number of a mentor with whom we could discuss your application:

__________________________________________________________

Application continued on page 3.
Hastings Smith Memorial Vocal Scholarship Application

Please write a letter that describes your musical experience and accomplishments, your goals in pursuing further study of vocal music, and how the award would be used to assist your progress.