

INTRODUCTION

Medications are expensive, but the cost may be reduced. Many state agencies, health departments, private organizations, online coupons, and drug companies offer prescription assistance programs to help patients afford the medication they need. This booklet is designed to help patients find that information. Phone numbers and websites of programs in Virginia and of the major drug companies are given so that you may call directly or find more information online. The programs have different eligibility requirements and give different amounts of aid, so look through the booklet and find which programs will work best for you.

STATE AGENCIES

VA Department of Medical Assistance Services (855) 242-8282 <https://www.dmas.virginia.gov/>

The DMAS website links to information on statewide company sponsored prescription drug assistance programs, Medicare Discount Cards programs, regional programs, and membership programs. Helpful resource links on DMAS website: Client Services, Pharmacy Services.

Winchester (540) 536-1610 www.unitedwaynsv.org

Familywise Prescription Drug Discount Card

This is not insurance. It is a free resource that offers immediate discounts on prescription drugs at participating pharmacies. The card is for anyone without health insurance or prescription drug coverage. It covers prescriptions for everyone in the family, including pets

Local churches and Salvation Army Chapters often have medication assistance programs.

Free clinics have been established in many areas of Virginia. For a list call the Virginia Association of Free Clinics in Richmond at (804) 340-3434 or go to www.vafreeclinics.org

The Epilepsy Foundation of Virginia has a one-time medication assistance program and continually looks for resources in communities. Call (434) 924-8669 or go to www.epilepsyva.com

MEDICARE

If you are a Medicare beneficiary, you are eligible for Medicare prescription drug coverage, regardless of your income, health status, or current prescription expenses.

There are 2 types of Medicare plans that provide prescription drug coverage:

Medicare Prescription Drug Plans

These plans add prescription drug coverage to Original Medicare and certain types of Medicare Health Plans. If you have limited income and resources, you may get extra help to pay for your Medicare drug plan costs.

Medicare Health Plans

Some of these plans cover both health care and prescription drugs.

For more information, call 1-800-MEDICARE or go to www.medicare.gov

ONLINE MEDICATION COUPONS

With prices of medications steadily increasing, prescription medications can become more of a burden on consumers. This is especially problematic for consumers with limited or no prescription coverage. This problem has produced multiple new avenues to help with the rising costs of medication. The websites and resources found below are fantastic tools to be used for those that struggle with keeping up with the expensive nature of medications.

GoodRx www.goodrx.com

This is a free service that can be utilized on their website or through their phone application available on the apple store or google play. The search functionality allows you to search via drug name, quantity, and strength of the medication. From here, GoodRx searches through all pharmacies in your area to find you the cheapest price. This may be the true cash price or a discount that is provided free through their website or application.

This discount is applied in place of any insurance and is not used in conjunction with existing coverage. GoodRx discounts can equate to up to 80% or more.

WebMDRx www.webmd.com/rx

This is a free service that can be utilized on their website or through their phone application available on the apple store or google play. This resource is very similar to GoodRx in that you may search for the lowest prices in your area based on the medication name. It will also include the store hours and provide you with specific discount cards for your particular medication.

In similar fashion to GoodRx, this discount is applied in place of any insurance and is not used in conjunction with existing coverage.

PATIENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Many pharmaceutical companies have patient assistance programs to provide low cost or no cost medications. Your doctor's office can help you locate programs for the medications you are taking. The chart below lists anticonvulsant drugs, their makers, and their customer service numbers and information regarding patient assistance programs. The numbers and policies of the patient assistance programs change often. Contact the manufacturer for updated information. At the bottom of the list are the names, numbers and websites of medication assistance programs that provide discounts on prescription medications. Also included are websites that can help you locate assistance programs for specific medications.
