ART GALLERY

Thelma Harris Art Gallery

*5940 College Ave. (at Harwood Ave.),
Oakland, 510-654-0443*

Thelma Harris has been dealing art-work since 1987, when she took out a $5,000 loan and began collecting pieces from Africa. Since then, her gallery has become a treasure trove of contemporary black art with luscious color palettes, and iconic works of the Black Arts Movement and the Harlem Renaissance. In a recent show, an Elizabeth Catlett lithograph set the entire gallery in motion: five figures dancing with limbs in jazzy composition, dark skin glowing as if illuminated by moonlight. Pop in and experience history.
