

Coordinating Mental Health Care with Psychiatrists

Free Webinar & CME for Primary Care Providers - Wednesday, March 22, 2017, 12:00 pm ET

Need help addressing mental health needs in your practice?

Want to be reimbursed for these services?

Learn about collaborative care with psychiatrists.

In this free webinar, presented by the American Psychiatric Association, primary care physicians will be introduced to the Collaborative Care Model – an evidence-based integrated care model that can help your practice increase access to quality behavioral health care while improving outcomes. In January 2017, CMS released payment codes specifically for this model of care. Join the webinar and learn more about the model, the reimbursement codes, and how to connect with a psychiatrist in your area.

Presenters:

- Kristin Kroeger, APA's Chief of Policy, Programs, & Partnerships and Tristan Gorrindo, M.D., APA's Director of Education
- John Kern, MD, AIMS Center at the University of Washington
- Ray Rion, MD, Packard Health
