PASTOR LEAH'S PERSPECTIVES...

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

Every day, our United Church of Christ denomination puts out a short daily devotional, written by various UCC Pastors and national staff across the country. Sometimes, the pieces are a bit more of what I would consider a devotion to God; sometimes, they are more of a reflection piece. Occasionally (because pastors are humans too), they can even be a bit of a rant. But, always, they are thought-provoking and a nice way to start one's day, looking to God.

You can sign up to receive the daily devotionals by visiting www.ucc.org/daily_devotional. Here's a foretaste of what to expect – a devotional from a couple of weeks ago about embracing the freedom to do what you need to do in order to feel grateful. I'll be talking more about how gratitude brings wholeness in my October 9th sermon, so I thought this appropriate to share now.

Blessings, Leah

"Dessert First" by Rev. Molly Baskette

"What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity." - Ecclesiastes 2:22-23

One of the best things about being a grownup is our agency in so many aspects of daily living. If we so choose, we can forgo flossing forever, eat a hot fudge sundae before our kale, or never eat kale at all.

But one of the hardest things about being a grownup is that our inherent grownup-ness often prevents us from eating dessert first. We are plagued by guilt that we are not eating well enough, parenting well enough, exercising enough, or doing a good enough job at work. I sometimes think my religious inheritance is not the expansive feasting of the good-time Jesus, but the golden calf of the cheerless Puritan work ethic.

And then, our family bought an inflatable hot tub. Though little more than a glorified kiddie pool with a heater and filter, it is a thing of extraordinary wonder. It beckons night and day. The Puritanical voice still tells me: you can relax in the hot tub after all the work is done. Trouble is: the work is never done.

The other morning I faced a 13-hour day at church. The kids were in school. I would not have to fight for leg room in the hot tub. And I broke character: I got in before doing a lick of work. There we were: me, the hummingbird that stopped by for a visit, the trees slow-clapping me for getting over my idolatrous work habits, and my God. My God.

Prayer

God, weaken our resolve not to eat dessert first, climb in the hot tub before work, or otherwise receive with overwhelming gratitude the good gifts of this earthly life. Amen.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Sunday, Oct. 16 2 PM

All God's creatures are invited to church for a brief, beautiful, fun service to bless them for their daily gift of unconditional love. Come for the joy of it, whether you have a pet or not!

A few things to know:

- 🐾 Only bring pets that would be happy getting blessed.
 - 🐾 Leashes, crates, cages and terrariums are important so each animal feels safe in the worship space.
 - 🐾 Bring a photo if your pet is shy or is no longer with you.
 - 🐾 No pets at all? Kids can bring their favorite toy animals. They teach us love, too.
- Refreshments for all to follow!

CAKE DECORATING AND CAKE WALK – IT'S SO FUN!

The Fauntleroy Fall Festival will be held this year on Sunday, Oct. 23, and we will again have the Cake Decorating Contest and Cake Walk as one of the events. This year, we will be located in the Vashon Room in the Hall at Fauntleroy. In order to make this event a success, we are calling on bakers to provide the cakes... and we need lots of them! We have three categories for the Cake Decorating Contest: Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced.

Cakes should be brought to the Vashon Room on Sunday, the 23rd, between Noon and 1 PM. Voting will begin at 1:30 and continue until about 3. Once the votes have been tallied, prizes will be awarded for each category and then the Cake Walk will begin and continue until all the cakes have been chosen.

Even if you do not want to enter the Cake Decorating Contest, you can bake and donate a cake for the Cake Walk. Cakes for the contest can be any shape or size and should have a Fall, Halloween or West Seattle Theme. They can be very simple to very elaborate and would be a great parent/child, family, or group project.

Do not miss out on the fun! Bake and decorate a cake, bring it to the contest and vote, then stay and join in the Cake Walk. Questions???

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE WORKSHOP – PILGRIM FIRS

How can people of faith work for environmental justice for all? How can we create Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Beloved Community—one that is sustainable, healthy and inclusive? This workshop will explore these questions with the goal of empowering conversation and actions around environmental justice that will continue far beyond the initial workshop.

It takes place from 5 PM, Wed., Oct. 19 through lunch on Fri., Oct. 21, at Pilgrim Firs Camp near Port Orchard. The cost is $130. Go to <http://pilgrim-firs.org/calendar/> to register. Call Meighan Pritchard, 206-370-4142 for more information. Sponsored by the PNC of the UCC and UCC Justice & Witness Ministries.

FOR OUR WOMEN

CALLING ALL WEST SIDE UCC WOMEN!

You are invited to retreat together on Sat., Oct. 29, for a one-day Women's Retreat at the Hall at Fauntleroy.

The retreat theme, Worship Full ...Love All, relates to the work of the Advent Conspiracy. Rev. Leah Bilinski and CE Director, Karyn Frazier, will be leading us as we think about how we might better reflect, honor and live out God's incarnation in our families, community and world.

An optional potluck dinner on Fri., Oct. 28, at Fauntleroy Church is a fun way to get to know each other better. More details are available on the registration materials.

Cost is $30 (some scholarships available) and registrations are due by Oct. 23. You can register online at <http://www.surveygizmo.com/s3/3037688/2016-Women-s-Retreat> and paper forms are available in your church office. Checks must be sent to Fauntleroy Church by Oct. 23.

INTERIOR DESIGN AND FUNCTIONALITY TASK FORCE

Did you know that the church has an Interior Design and Functionality Task Force, which was formed in 2010?

Following the vision of the remodeled building, it makes recommendations that help make the building spaces more efficient and less cluttered with consistent decorations, fixtures and furniture. In the past year, original member, Sheryl Guyon, worked with Jackie Gould and the Church/Y Committee to purchase new furniture for the building lobby. If you haven't tried out the chairs and couch outside of Jackie's office...do! In the coming year, the task force will be looking at the Narthex for ways to incorporate a "Welcome Table" for visitors, in addition to the "Get Involved Table", for those already involved in our church. Please consult the Interior Design and Functionality Task Force members, Tim Hossner and Celesta Bjornson, when it

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

"WHITE PRIVILEGE: LET'S TALK"

Register for the Adult Ed Class: 6:30-8:30 PM, Oct. 11-Nov. 15

This fall, we will focus our study on the subject of White Privilege, using materials recently developed by the United Church of Christ. Our UCC General Minister and President, John Dorhauer, describes the curriculum as "a concerted effort to enable allies [for racial equality] to see with new eyes how white privilege works. The curriculum offers the promise and the possibility that those who commit to engaging in this dialogue can develop higher degrees of awareness of privilege and its consequences." In the class, we will discuss selected readings from the curriculum, but the entire document will be available for your perusal via an online PDF (or paper copy by request).

We'll meet on consecutive Tuesday nights (except Nov. 8) and cover the following topics: Oct. 11- "Spiritual Autobiography Through the Lens of Race"; Oct. 18 -"Whiteness as the Norm"; Oct. 25/Nov. 1-"The Cash Value of Whiteness"; and Nov. 15-"On Becoming an Ally". Within each of those areas, we'll read stories written by the five authors (two white men, two black women, and one black man) regarding their experience of race and reflections on how "whiteness is part of the air we breathe." Two sessions will be devoted to disparities between whites and blacks in the areas of education, medical care, housing, and income and wealth. In the last session, we'll consider what it means to be an ally in the effort to end white privilege and introduce our book study for the spring, "The New Jim Crow" by Michelle Alexander.

Sign-up in advance for the series at the Get Involved Table or by emailing Mary Code (codemary55@gmail.com). The cost is $20 which covers the expense of a simple dinner and materials provided. Feel free to request a scholarship, or if you'd like to help out, we'd gratefully accept a giant green salad in lieu of payment. Christian Education Ministry

Please join us for Children's Sabbath Sunday. The world's great faith traditions teach that children should be lovingly cared for and the needy and vulnerable among us treated with compassion and justice. This spirit-filled, intergenerational worship led by our children and youth should inspire all of us to improve the world for our children's sakes.

We'll also celebrate 60+ years of partnership with Little Pilgrim School. We'll especially thank Little Pilgrim School teachers Angela de Ita, Amanda Frame-Wawro, Leslie Minckler, Martha Nogales, and Lorrie Cook, Director, who joyfully affirm and encourage all our children every day.

Then after worship, be sure to return for the Fauntleroy Fall Festival from 2-5:00! Activities include pumpkin painting, a cake walk, live music, and so much more fun for all ages. Mark your calendar for this full and wonderful day!
