How to more effectively bring the gospel to people who are different than ourselves
A visit with Brig Judy
June 3, 2018 – 1 Corinthians 9:19-27

PROPOSITION: Missionaries to other people groups have much wisdom to share on how to more effectively bring the gospel to people who think different than we do.

I. We are called to be evangelical ( sharers of Jesus’ good news)

A. We want to win as many as possible to Jesus

B. The gospel is good news which saves people

C. Sharing the gospel with others brings future blessings

D. Crown: special honor & reward for eternity

II. This requires external and attitude changes to be most effective

A. Give up some personal freedom

B. Become like others when with them

C. Sensitive to cultural/social/economic differences

III. This also requires personal self-discipline

06-03-2018; Cartoons (on back) by permission