A Message from the Rabbi

“May the One who blessed our ancestors bless...those who establish synagogues for prayer and those who enter them to pray, those who give funds for heat and light, wine for Kiddush and Havdalah, bread for wayfarers and charity to the poor, and those who involve themselves in the needs of the community faithfully...”

Dear Ken: I’m sorry that you are not here tonight. I know you were looking forward to this occasion. In your own quiet way you worked hard and with deep devotion over the years, serving hotdogs at the Purim carnival, establishing our Men’s club, creating a system of accountability for our budget, and offering your expertise to the shul. You have been an unlikely leader – quiet, reserved and a bit shy. We loved your dry sense of humor and admired you as a deeply caring person. Your passing came so unexpectedly; we have not yet overcome our deep sense of loss. I want you to know that you are not forgotten by your dear family and your many friends at OJC.

Dear Roz: I think you’re the strongest woman I have ever met. Despite all that has happened in the past year, you continue to be an active and contributing member of OJC, working with the board, attending and leading minyan, and sharing your friendship with others. You never say no to our requests. Over the years I have come to know you as a person who exemplifies the values of hesed, kindness and caring. Your life is not the same without Kenny, but I want you to know that you have many friends at OJC who will always be at your side. Thank you for all that you do for our congregation and for the friendship you share with us.

Dear Adele: If I was presenting this award tonight I would have called it the OJC Congeniality Award. You are the smiling face of OJC, welcoming the stranger who shows up at services and calling new potential members of Oceanside to welcome them into our community. We could all learn an important lesson from you. Adele, you exemplify the mitzvah of Hachnasat Orchim, hospitality. Spirituality begins with warmth, welcome, and connection. Thank you for your continued devotion to our board and for sharing your deep passion for Jewish life with us. Your divrei Torah over the years have inspired us and your continuing desire to learn has set a high standard for every member of our congregation.

Ken, of blessed memory, Roz, and Adele are the type of people we speak of when we recite the prayer for the congregation on Shabbat morning. How fortunate we are to have such members who enrich our congregational life.

Rabbi Mark Greenspan
A Message from the President of Oceanside Jewish Center

Dear OJC Friends and Guests,

I would to congratulate this year’s Journal Dinner Dance honorees and thank them for their continued dedication and service to OJC.

Roz and Kenny Lieber, z.l., are our Outstanding Service Honorees. They are long time members of OJC. Kenny, of blessed memory, passed away this past year. We are still mourning his untimely passing. He served on the Executive board as our Treasurer and in a president of our Men’s club. Roz is currently our financial secretary and has been a member of the Board of Trustees and is also a member of the Ritual committee. Roz and Kenny attended Shabbat services regularly on Friday night and Saturday morning.

Adele is our Leadership Honoree. She has an upbeat and positive attitude in everything she does. She greets everyone with a smile and is genuinely concerned how they are doing. She has been a great role model for many of our members. She leads by example. Currently she serves on the Executive Board as a vice president and is also co-chair of our membership committee. She is also an active member of the Inclusion committee.

I have been to many Journal dinners over the years, but this is the first time I am attending as President of OJC. I have been a member of OJC for almost two decades and a board member for about 18 years. When I joined OJC I never imagined I would one day be president! I have to say this has been an interesting journey so far for me. I have met so many wonderful people here at OJC along the way. I have gotten to know many of you through the many OJC functions and life cycle events.

In the past few months we have conducted a survey to see what our congregants are looking for at OJC and what they hope to see in the future. This survey has brought to light some challenges that we are facing as a congregation. However, it also showed us some we are doing right. It is heart-warming to know that for the vast majority of our members, belonging to OJC is an investment in the future! As we continue to analyze the results, we hope to make learn how to reach all our congregants needs and make OJC a hub of activity and a place where people feel welcome and feel at home here.

It is so good to see many of our new members taking on leadership roles just as our honorees for tonight have done before them. This is how we hope to continue the traditions set forth before as we move to the future of our community.

I would like to thank our Journal Chairs and Committee and Robert Ian caterers for organizing this beautiful evening. I want to thank everyone who has contributed to make this such a special night for our Honorees. Enjoy the evening!

Toda Rabah,
Saul Weinstein
Kenneth and Roslyn Lieber’s Biography

Roz Lieber and Ken Lieber might never have met except for that fateful summer of 1976. Roz grew up in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, a community divided into two distinct neighborhoods – the southern end was the bastion of Satmar Chasidim and the northern end was staunchly Puerto Rican.

Ken grew up in Rego Park, Queens where his parents were Conservative Jews who belonged to the Rego Park Jewish Center for many years. He went to Hebrew school there and was bar mitzvah’d. That basically ended his involvement with the synagogue although he continued to show up for the high holidays to make his mom happy.

Roz grew up Orthodox. In Brooklyn during the 60’s and 70’s that meant sitting behind a curtain during services, segregated from the men and the services. Women didn’t sing or read Torah or lead services but she didn’t know that was even possible.

Ken and Roz met in 1976. Roz was working for Frederick Atkins, Inc., a buying office at 11 W. 42nd Street that purchased merchandise for some of the most exclusive stores in the U.S. Ken was summer help, preparing shipments for the coming Christmas season. It wasn’t love at first sight for Ken although it was for Roz. In fact, it took about a year for Ken to come around (after dating Roz’s friend for a while) and realize that Roz was the girl for him.

In 1978, Roz and Ken decided to give a serious relationship a go and moved in together. It was monumental for both families but they weathered the storm and in 1980, they got engaged. That made everyone very happy and on October 5, 1980, they tied the knot in a lavish $8,000 wedding that brought families from as far away as Canada, France and Israel. Roz and Ken travelled extensively and enjoyed their newlywed status for almost 14 years when they decided that it was time to be parents and adopted Matthew in 1994. He was the light of their lives and when he turned 5, realized that he needed to be in suburbia where he could benefit from the grass and the trees and smaller classroom sizes.

In 1999, Roz and Ken bought their house on Anderson Street. It had 4 bedrooms and 2 ½ bathrooms and a big backyard. It was a quiet street and there were kids down the block for Matthew to play with. It was ideal. That was when they joined the OJC and went to High Holiday services for the first time. Wow, were they surprised to find out that the sanctuary was packed and they had to sit in the lobby! Right after that, they bought two seats in the main sanctuary and sat there happily afterward.

For years, they attended sporadically. Roz registered Matt for Hebrew school and went to the junior congregation services whenever Matt went. She learned to sing the Shabbat tunes from Sol Yousha (z”l) and learned to enjoy the liturgy. Ken continued to come for the high holidays but soon they made friends in the shul. Roz joined the PTA and became president. Ken joined the men’s club and sponsored events. They had football nights during the years that always featured hot hor d’oeuvres!

Roz became a member of the Board of Trustees and worked the Purim carnival. Ken became the treasurer of the shul and was the hot dog man at the carnival, complete with a hot dog hat and apron. They both loved doing this and were always glad to pitch in for other events. They dressed up for the Purim balls and danced the night away at journal dinner dances.

In 2010, Nick Jackson came into their lives. He was Matthew’s friend for a long time and came to live with them right after Yom Kippur. He was a welcome addition to the family and the brother that Matthew had been looking for. The boys graduated high school together in 2012 and Roz and Ken couldn’t be prouder.

Roz and Ken (z”l) are honored to have been chosen for this year’s journal and hope that Roz will always be in a position to help and nurture the Oceanside Jewish Center in the future.
Twenty one years ago I joined Oceanside Jewish Center as a single mother with a 4 year old son. I could never imagine the years would bring me to this day.

Growing up first in Brooklyn and then Queens my mother, a single parent, raised her son and daughter to fend for ourselves while she worked to support us. We lived with our elderly grandparents and I have vivid memories of my grandmother cooking, going to the kosher butcher and bringing home chicken feet cooked in schmaltz which my mom, aunt and I devoured with delight. I remember watching my grandfather wrapped in his tallit prayer in the morning and night never really understanding why at that time. It was a mystery that remained in the shadows of my mind. My brother and I attended a "Hebrew School" which was held in the back of a small shul and consisted of an orthodox Rabbi with 6 boys and me. I enjoyed the weekly class but rarely went to services. Our neighborhood in Queens was made up Italian and Irish families with only three other Jewish families on our block.

I grew up, moved several times, married several times until I met Frank Murphy and a new journey began as an interfaith family which has ironically brought us closer to Judaism. My son, Matthew, attended OJC Hebrew School, and was Bar Mitzvah. Coincidentally I was also Bat Mitzvah at OJC, at the age of forty six a profound landmark to my life. As my involvement in Oceanside Jewish Center became greater, joining committees, volunteering for special projects and eventually becoming a member of the Executive Board, I realized I had gained a family, renewed my heritage and found the great love and support of the two special men in my life, Frank and Matthew.

One of my greatest joys has been participating in the Kol HaNeshama Service where not only have I read Torah and presented Dvar Torahs but have become part of a kehillot whose voices join together to become a kehillot that sustains my Jewish soul. For that I am forever grateful to Oceanside Jewish Center.

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to welcome everyone to the Oceanside Jewish Center Annual Jewish Dine & Dance. OJC serves as a pillar of the Oceanside community and remains an invaluable institution.

I wish to congratulate tonight’s honorees: Adele Murphy and Roslyn and Kenneth Lieber. Adele serves not just as a leader for OJC, but as an outstanding citizen for all of Oceanside. Roslyn carries on the legacy of her late husband Kenneth through her dedicated service and guidance as a member of the synagogue. These individuals are well-deserved honorees, and I thank them for their tireless service on behalf of our community.

Please accept my warm wishes for an enjoyable evening and for continued success.

Sincerely,

Todd Kaminsky
Senator, 9th District
What does it take to create a community?
Consider the following advice:

הלא אומר,آل חפץ מעבר

Hillel says: Do not separate yourself from the community.  Avot 2:4

The only way to change the world is to change yourself into what you want others to be. Mordechai Kaplan

The relationship between the Jewish people and its individual members is different than the relationship between any other national group and its members. All other national groups bestow upon their individual members the external aspect of their essence... This is not the case regarding Israel. The soul of the individuals is drawn from community, community bestowing a soul upon the individual. Rabbi A.I. Kook

We thank our honorees, Kenny Z”L and Roz Lieber, and Adele Murphy For helping to build a sacred community at OJC Through their example and hard work.

A Hearty Mazel Tov To Our Deserving Honorees. Thank You For All You Do For Our OJC Community

Adele,
You are an amazing woman who brings passion to all that you do! OJC is fortunate to have you!

Roz and Kenneth
Your many years of devotion and hard work on behalf of OJC has been so meaningful and will always be deeply appreciated and admired.

Cutler Family

Friend of Oceanside Jewish Center
Congratulations to Adele Murphy
and
Kenneth Lieber of blessed memory
and
Roslyn Lieber

----------
For your dedication to our synagogue and for being like the disciples of Aaron, loving peace, pursuing integrity and
Bringing us all closer to the principles of Torah

----------
May the Lord bless you and guard you
May the Lord show you favor and be generous to you
May the Lord show you kindness and grant you peace

Naomi & Stan Altschul
To our dear honorees who have exemplified service and caring to OJC and its membership

Kenneth and Roslyn Lieber

Kenneth Lieber, of blessed memory, had one of the biggest hearts. Ken worked tirelessly for OJC and his impact will not be forgotten.

Roslyn Lieber is a force of her own to be reckoned with. She is as dedicated to OJC as Ken was.

Adele Murphy

It takes a busy person to get the job done. Adele Murphy is that person.

Her friendly disposition and her inability to never say “no” make her a valuable asset that OJC is fortunate to have.

Her commitment to OJC is evident in everything she does.

Congratulations to all our honorees.

Michelle & Marv Dressler
Adele, Roz and Ken (blessed be he)
Thank you so much for all your hard work.
It truly is an honor well deserved.
Flora and Julio Gurman

Ken z”l and Roz & Adele

Thank you for your dedication and passion to keep OJC the warm and inclusive place that it is. You have helped to make our OJC family a part of our lives.

Ken will always be with us with his smile and warmth.

Mazel tov on your well deserved honor.
