HABITAT FOR HUMANITY THRIVENT BUILDS—WORK DAY COMING UP....

Westchester Lutheran continues to be a part of the Habitat for Humanity home building program. Volunteers are needed to participate in the actual building experience on JULY 28 —8 am to 3 pm at 2530 Santa Ana Blvd., S. LA 90059. The event is being hosted by Thrivent Financial representative, Sarah Auernhammer.

No prior experience required!

All participants will receive a Live Generously t-shirt and lunch will be provided. You've always wanted to do this! Now is your chance. We are looking forward to a work day filled with fellowship and fun!

Please RSVP to Kirstin Wilson at 310-322-3520 or email kirstin.wilson@thrivent.com to volunteer.

Not comfortable swing a hammer? Here are some other ways to help:

PRAY for the workers, volunteers and recipients of the homes
ADVOCATE—spread the word about the great work Thrivent and Habitat for Humanity are doing together.
VOLUNTEER—make lunches for workers and on-site volunteers on the build days.
DONATE—always a good thing!

HOLLYWOOD BOWL WLC NIGHT

A few tickets are still available for our WLC Hollywood Bowl Night on July 14, 2018 for the 8 pm show. The program featuring Michael McDonald, Kenny Loggins and Christopher Cross with the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, conducted by Thomas Wilkins. . These three ambassadors of contemporary pop take you on a journey of epic hits and legendary rock sounds. "The rich baritone vocals of Michael McDonald, the footloose fun of Kenny Loggins, and the sensitive stylings of Christopher Cross make it a concert you won't want to miss, with each artist paying his own set with orchestra."

Tickers are $43.50 per person for admission and bus transportation to and from.

More details and photos of the 3 artists for this show are at: <https://www.hollywoodbowl.com/events/performances/374/>
