Barrington Fine Rug Gallery: Antique carpets are our passion, delighting clients is our mission

Barrington Fine Rug Gallery’s goal is to expand the appreciation of fine and antique oriental carpets and to share our knowledge, experience, and love of these beautiful pieces with the clients that are truly discriminating and are looking to acquire and incorporate unique carpets in their home and office.

Our roots go back to the great Carpet Bazaars of Persia. The love and appreciation of fine weaving were ignited in me by my father and other members of our family which have been collectively in business for over one hundred years.

Over the past half a century, we have assembled a collection of truly unique pieces of art in every aspect including overall design, materials used, age and condition. For over three decades in the US, I have shared my knowledge and experience of fine and antique oriental rugs by giving talks to collectors in order to spread the love and knowledge of these fine pieces.
