Like everything in 2020, Record Store Day is a bit different this year. We have wracked all five of our brain cells that this year has left us with to come up with the safest and fairest way to do this. Here it is:

- Go to: <https://recordstoreday.com/SpecialReleases?view=all> and check out the list of amazing titles that are coming out on Aug 29
- Fill in up to 10 wishes for RSD - Any titles that you write in the 1-10 spaces below, you are committing to purchase if we have it in stock
- You may fill in anything from 1 - 10 titles, but only one copy of any title
- Add any other “maybes” in the following lines - you are not committing to purchase these
- Get this back to Nic by Aug 28 - either drop it through the mail slot at the shop, or scan it or take a photo and email to nic@upthecreekrecords.com, or tie it to the leg of a well-trusted pigeon - one entry per person, obviously!

Then, tune in on Instagram live at 9:00 AM on Aug 29 @upthecreekrecords and we will pull these papers out of a hat in our Totally Random Record Store Day Raffle, fill orders from your 1-10 as best we can from the inventory we have. We'll do a second pass to fill in any “maybes,” then contact you to complete the sale. We will either deliver to you or have you pick up at the shop at your earliest convenience.

Here are my “maybes”

I understand that this year is weird, that records are awesome, that the folks at Up The Creek Records are doing their darndest to make this safe and fair, that this does not constitute a hold, that I am stoked that I'm not waiting in line this year (although I will kind of miss that part), and that I am committing to purchasing the records that I listed in my top 10.
