Angela Sears' passionate support of public education through media communication make her an ideal candidate for recognition of her special contribution to Public Education. She was nominated by Peace Wapiti Public School Division No. 76 (PWSD) and received the Special Contribution to Public Education (Media) award at the Public School Boards' Association of Alberta's Spring General Assembly June 2nd, at a ceremony where her colleagues honored and recognized outstanding achievement.

As Angela reaches this milestone in her career with PWSD, it was with great pride that members of the Public School Boards' Association of Alberta presented this service award to her following a nomination by Dana McIntosh on behalf of PWSD.

Dana describes Angela's "level of creativity beyond anything I've ever seen before." Dana continues, "Ms. Sears' six years with us has been a gift; she is so creative, professional and intelligent."

Besides providing communication advice to the Board, Executive Team and Administrators, Ms. Sears' projects for PWSD were recognized by the Canadian Association of Communicators in Education Bravo Awards.
