

Job Title FAMILY MEDICINE PHYSICIAN FACULTY (OB PREFERRED)

Job

Description General Overview of Job Description (detailed job description available, upon request):

Under the direction of the Chief Medical Officer (CMO)/Family medicine Residency Program Director (FMRPD) Core Faculty Member serves as a clinical leader of the medical practice accountable for assisting the Chief Medical Officer in insuring the delivery of quality patient care. The Core Faculty Members also serves as a staff physician. This position is responsible for assisting in developing, directing, and managing the Family Medicine Residency Program. The Core Faculty Member position maintains appropriate oversight and stability of the residency training program, including compliance with accrediting and regulatory agencies, financial and human resources management, and contract development and review.

Qualifications

M.D. or D.O degree

Current board certification in Family Medicine

Family medicine physician faculty who are not certified by the American Board of Family Medicine must demonstrate ongoing learning activities equivalent to ABFM maintenance of certification process including demonstration of professionalism, cognitive expertise, self-assessment and life-long learning, and assessment of performance in practice.

Employed Full-Time 40 hours per week

Current, or eligible, medical licensure in New Mexico

Eligible for successful appointment to Gila Regional Medical Center

Fluent in English and Spanish (preferred) - both written and oral.

How to Apply For more information, please contact:

Kathy-Lyn Allen Pacheco, Director of Provider Recruitment and Marketing 575-597-2727 (telephone)

kallen@hmsnm.org (email)