BEER TENT CRAFT
Barn Owl, Gozzards Ford	Black Piet	Porter	5.2	A strong dark ale with velvety maltiness with rich plum and blackcurrant flavours.
Loose Cannon, Abingdon	Recoil	IPA	4.2	IPA-style beer made with an all Pilsner malt and carefully chosen hops.
LoveBeer, Milton	Hair of the Doug	Ginger Pale Ale	5.1	Beautifully executed unfiltered pale ale with moreish flavours of ginger and molasses. Special new brew from an award-winning local microbrewery!
AnimalBrewing Co., Thame	Orca	SMaSH	4.9	“SMaSH” beer: Single Malt and Single Hop. Pale English Maris Otter malt is paired with Wakatu hops, highlighting the delights of this perfect pair. Another fantastic one-off beer from Animal.
Little Ox, Freeland	Oddbod	Premium Bitter	4.0	Characterful premium bitter crafted from pale, crystal and wheat malts. The malty backbone is complimented by English and Slovenian hops to give a floral, bitter finish with hints of orange marmalade.
Clouded Minds, Banbury	Luppol	Golden Ale	4.2	Clean and hoppy, this starts with a sensational nose of citrus and stone fruits. Light-medium bodied with plenty of Cascade and Summit hops for a tropical hops flavour. Very drinkable and refreshing bitter finish.
Lenton Lane, Nottinghamshire	Bluebird	Light Pale Ale	3.8	Pale, refreshing and hoppy. Bluebird is both late and dry hopped for extra flavour and aroma. Silver Medal Winner at Chesterfield CAMRA Battle of Beers Festival 2015.
Cocksure, Bristol	P’Ale	Session Pale Ale	4.5	Pine aromas and stone fruit notes finished with a hint of gentle bitterness. This beer is bursting with complexity and flavour. One to savour, but one that will soon turn into two.
VOG, Glamorgan	Dark Matter	Blackcurrant Porter	4.4	Darker than the night sky, a complex roasted malt and hop recipe with flavours of liquorice, coffee and just a hint of blackcurrant. Rich and smooth, balanced perfectly by the late addition of Bramling Cross hops.
CIDERS
Farmer Jim’s, Somerset	Pickled Pear	Medium Perry	7.2	A light and fruity perry made from ‘proper’ perry pears – but beware the hidden kick.
Broad Oak, Somerset	Sloe Gin	Medium/Sweet	4.0	Infusing used sloes in cider, this ‘slider is fruity with hints of almonds and a pink blush. Sweet but full of flavour.
Celtic Marches, Hereford	Cuckoo Penny (Rhubarb)	Medium	4.0	Yorkshire triangle timperley rhubarb juice combined with Herefordshire cider. Medium with a subtle tart of rhubarb juice.
Lilley’s, Dorset	Lemon & Ginger	Medium/Dry	4.2	An unfiltered medium-dry cider which has been expertly blended to bring out the zing of the lemon and ginger.
BELGIUM/ BELGIUM STYLE BEERS
Loose Cannon, Abingdon	Session IPA	IPA	4.1	Golden, unfiltered and unfiltered modern Session IPA. Generous new world hop additions provide amazing passionfruit, peach, orange and mango flavours.
Loose Cannon, Abingdon	Oxford Pils	Mild and malty	5.0	A flavoursome craft Pilsner. Light and crisp, brewed with a special balance of Hallertau Magnum and Saaz Hops. This is a lager which will not disappoint.
De Halve Mann, Bruges, Belgium	Brugse Zot Bond	Spicy Blonde	6.0	Brewed using four different malts to give it a distinctive big body and sweet malt character. The unique yeast adds notes of banana and plum, while the hops bring an edge of dried fruit to a crisp, clean finish

Verhaeghe, Vichete, Belgium	Duchesse De Bourgogne	Strong Sour Red	6.2	This amber beer is brewed and then aged in oak barrels until it starts to slowly turn sour. It has a wonderful oak and cherry aroma, with a hint of balsamic vinegar. It starts beautifully sweet and melts away into soft, sour cherry flavours. An outstanding Flemish red.
Gispy Hill, London	Les Gilles	Belgium Dubbel	6.5	Belgium-style dubbel which has been conditioned over sour cherries for a full on amber beer that has fabulous fruit flavours. Lovely aromas with sour notes that fold alongside the bigger, bitter malt of a Dubbel. The taste is sweet and sour before a biscuit dry finish.
Lindemans, Vlezenbeek, Belgium	Lindemans Kriek	Cherry Lambic	3.5	Cherries are added to give this beer a pleasant and fruity sweetness that offsets the sour base, before a pleasing and refreshing tart finish.
Westmalle, Mostheurel, Belgium	Westmalle Dubbel	Trappist Fruity Amber Ale	7.0	A traditional Trappist beer which has undergone secondary fermentation. Rich and complex flavours, with hints of herbs and fruit that lead to a fresh, bitter finish. Well balanced, quality beer with a soft feel in the mouth and a long, dry aftertaste.
Tap Social Movement, Botley	Grebe's Procession	Oatmeal Stout	5.5	Biscuit aromas, subtle coffee flavours, smooth and rich body and cream head. A beer our friends on the continent would be proud of!

AT THE BAR

BEERS

Loose Cannon, Abingdon	Abingdon Bridge	Best Bitter	4.1	Our local, award-winning traditional bitter with a modern twist. A copper hue belies the floral aroma of this thirst quenching beer. Smooth and malty notes with a balanced, hoppy finish.
Loose Cannon, Abingdon	Taptastic	???	???	Another from our local favourites. Special beer brewed exclusively for our Spring Beer Festival. Even we don't know what surprises are in store!
Adnams, Southwold	Fat Sprat	Pale Ale	3.8	A moreish pale ale brewed with complex malt and hop combinations. Citrus and Grapefruit aroma with some spicy notes. The citrus character of the hops shines through and balances with a light biscuit flavour before a crisp, dry finish.
Everards, Leicestershire	Ascalon	Chestnut Ale	4.0	Chestnut ale brewed with British grown Challenger and Admiral hops. Orange, zesty flavours are complemented with chocolate, earthy aromas, leaving a perfectly round finish.
Long Arm Co., London	Lucky Penny	Pale Ale	4.0	Admiral and First Gold hops, alongside malted barley and a little wheat, give this incredibly quaffable pale ale tonnes of UK hop aroma and flavour.
Butcombe, Somerset	Heath Cliff	EPA	4.6	Light amber beer with herbal, spicy and blackcurrant notes. Balanced with amber and crystal malts for sweet biscuit characters. A sublime bitterness, soft and balanced.
Hurns, Swansea	Deliah	Blonde Ale	4.0	A light golden blonde ale, crisp and refreshing with zesty citrus flavours and a hint of spice.
Shepherd Naeme, Kent	Whistable Bay Red IPA	IPA	4.5	Combines the classic citrus and pine aromas of a traditional Indian Pale Ale with roasted and caramel malt flavours.
Marstons, Burton Upon Trent	Wainwright Rat Race	Straw Ale	3.9	A light blonde beer, with a basket of dark fruit flavours and a peppery finish.
