PASSION: CSR/SUSTAINABILITY FLAGSHIP PROGRAM

Since 2010, pilot forums have been implemented across West Africa in Ghana, Nigeria and Cameroun. Over 800 participants consisting of multinational corporations, foundations, indigenous organizations and the civil society have participated.

The forum engages the region's most influential leaders and those with interest in Africa in critical discussions designed to create partnerships, networks, knowledge and collaborative pathways to achieve effective social change and impact in the Africa region; to set an agenda on best practices for corporate social responsibility, collaboration and sustainability investments. The forums have delivered first-class programs, leading thinkers and cutting-edge insights.

An outflow is the Sustainable Minds Program that targets the millennials by educating and engaging the next generation of leaders, we expect to develop individuals whose mindsets are hardwired to consider the implications of their actions on the well-being of their ecosystem, which includes their own personal economic well-being; and their community and environmental well-being. Only through the power of knowledge dissemination, effective engagement and collective dialogue can we ensure the development of Sustainable Leadership with highly-skilled, right thinking individuals leading the transformational movement on the continent.

Testimonials:

"I was very impressed by the overall event. You got a great venue, kept very closely to time and have put together some very engaging speakers. The audience seemed to be high level execs from many of the most important companies".

Ismail Radwan, Lead Economist,
The World Bank's Africa Finance & Private Sector Unit.

"Thanks for organizing a great conference! It was great to see many American companies, NGOs and former Net Impact members present. I look forward to working with your organization during my tenure in Ghana".

Thomas Chen, Economic Officer
U.S. Embassy, Accra, Ghana

"I really liked the fact that the attendees were quite switched on. Their concentration level was commendable and the questions they asked were also very well thought out". "I really enjoyed Uturn Africa Forum and I commend you for your vision and efforts which should be appreciated throughout the Continent. Great job and thanks for inviting us".

Val Thompson, President & CEO
Houston Int. Trade Dev. Council, Inc. USA
