Saturday, November 16: 10:00 am - 10:00 pm
Sunday, November 17: 10:00 am - 6:00 pm

The ski shows are a great venue to showcase your club and its membership benefits. All clubs in NWSCC are welcome to display their brochures/photos at the NWSCC booth, but no large club banners or posters will be allowed. When volunteering to staff the booth, you will be representing all of NWSCC's member clubs and the Council as a whole. Clubs can set up starting the day before each of the shows. NWSCC has a 10x10 booth, with an 8' skirted table, at each show.

For volunteering, you will receive FREE admittance to the Ski Show—Portland or Seattle. To volunteer for a shift at the Portland Ski Show, please contact Christine Ciardi at membership@nwskiers.org. To volunteer for a shift at the Seattle Ski Show, please contact William Shadbolt at Washclubs@nwskiers.org.

The ski shows are a lot of fun, with all the major ski resorts and retailers showing their goods—it's also a great place to purchase new equipment. Seattle now has a giant ski show and sale with all of Seattle's best ski and snowboard shops—save up to 70% on ski and snowboard gear at both shows! Volunteer to work the booth and you can spend some time afterwards shopping!

WOULD YOUR CLUB LIKE TO EARN A COMP ON ANY FWSA SKI TRIP? All you need to do is to bring 30 people, and the comp is yours to do with as you please. This might be shared if more than one club with in-club trip leaders has a total of 30 participants. This would also give you more input into future ski weeks that FWSA plans.

How would you like to ski at 12 ski areas for the price of one? This is now possible, thanks to the alliance forged among 12 ski areas in the western USA. The deal is that anyone with a season pass from any of these ski areas receives not only unlimited skiing at their home ski area but also 3 free lift tickets at each of the other ski areas (excluding Saturdays and holidays), as well as special offers on lodging, rentals, and buddy tickets. This offer applies to anytime passes only.

The Powder Alliance consists of the following 12 ski areas: Timberline (OR), Mt. Hood Skibowl (OR), Schweitzer Mt. (ID), Bridger Bowl (MT), Stevens Pass (WA), Sierra-at-Tahoe (CA), China Peak (CA), Mountain High (CA), Snowbasin (UT), Snowbowl (AZ), Crested Butte (CO), and Angel Fire (NM).

In effect, you get 12 resorts, 123 lifts, 806 trails, and 26,782 vertical feet. All for the price of one season pass! There is no additional charge for the Powder Alliance deal. Just get a season pass (a Fusion Pass for Oregonians).

Newly announced is the Mountain Collective Pass. It's a similar cooperation between several ski areas: Whistler/Blackcomb, Aspen/Snowmass, Jackson Hole, Alta/Snowbird, Mammoth Mt., and Alpine Meadows/Squaw Valley. This is not a season pass. It's a 12-time pass, with a maximum of just 2 days at each destination (6 areas total). It has no blackout dates, and it costs $379. Additional days at the resorts are 50% off, and there are lodging discounts up to 25% off. For further information, go to www.mountaincollective.com. Limited quantities of this pass are available, so hurry if you are interested!

FWSA Data Base: The clubs database has been updated since the Convention. The club information form should be filled out by NWSCC clubs and mailed in to NWSCC with your $20 dues payments. Council Presidents will be requested to check updated club officer information for accuracy in October/November.

From the NATIONAL SKI CLUB NEWS:

COLORADO SKI TOWNS LEGALIZE, BAN, OR WAIT AND SEE ON MARIJUANA SALES [Editor's note: this gives new meaning to "Rocky Mountain High"]

According to Colorado's amendment 64, passed in November 2012, adults 21 or older can grow up to three immature and three mature cannabis plants privately in a locked space, legally possess all cannabis from the plants they grow (as long as it stays where it was grown), legally possess up to one ounce of cannabis while traveling, and give as a gift up to one ounce to other citizens 21 years of age or older. Consumption is permitted in a manner similar to alcohol, with equivalent offenses proscribed for driving, although there's no known policy on skiing or boarding while high.

Telluride is the latest Colorado ski resort to officially approve the growing and sale of cannabis for "recreational use." The ease of acquiring marijuana, the legal sale of which was passed by a wide margin in the state's Amendment 64, will vary from resort to resort this winter.

Breckenridge has banned any retailers selling the drug and the one shop in town that already dispenses cannabis, The 'Breckenridge Cannabis Club, will not have its lease renewed and, in parts of Summit County (Arapahoe Basin, Breckenridge, Copper Mountain and Keystone), the local authorities have sought to limit the number of retailers licensed to sell the drug to just a few, or banned sales completely.

Aspen plans to allow four "medical dispensaries" of marijuana to become retail sellers on January 1st, 2014 and has several more planning applications in.

Crested Butte and Silverton are reported to be planning to allow retail sales.

Vail and Steamboat have banned recreational sales, but the latter says they may review the policy in the future depending on how the state-wide position develops.

ENTER YOUR PHOTOS OF WHISTLER/BLACKCOMB TO WIN A $13,000 SKI TRIP

In support of the winter campaign, Tourism Whistler also launched its winter signature contest: Picture Perfect at Whistler is a simple enter-to-win contest with one grand prize, valued at approximately $13,000+ CDN with a trip for two to Whistler, including round-trip airfare, ground transfers, 7 nights' accommodation at the Hilton Whistler Resort & Spa, winter ski or snowboard gear, a DSLR camera, lift tickets, and a 16x20 canvas photo print of your choice, a snowmobile excursion, zipline experience, a bungee jump, massages at Vida Spa, a spa serenity package, yogacare, show tickets and bar tab at the Garibaldi Lift Co., dinner for 2 at the Longhorn Saloon and Buffalo Bills, and tours of local attractions. The contest runs from October 1 – March 31, 2014 with the winner announced in April, 2014.

PRESIDENT OF HAWAII SKI CLUB HAD A CLOSE CALL SKIING IN NEW ZEALAND [Editor's note: one of OUR NWSCC clubs!]

In August, the 72-year-old president of the Hawaii Ski Club, Toby Kravet, was forced to spend the night in mountains near Wanaka, New Zealand, with two broken legs as he battled to stay awake and exercised his arms to avoid hypothermia. Kravet had boarded the chairlift about 2:30 pm and, when he got off at the top, visibility was poor and he turned left instead of right and ended up traversing well outside the ski area boundary, then skiing into a snow bank -- breaking both legs. The driver of a bus between the resort and ski area alerted authorities that Kravet was missing after he failed to board the bus when the resort closed. A nighttime helicopter search using night-vision equipment failed to find Kravet, but the search was restarted at daybreak and he was discovered about 8:30 a.m. well outside the ski area boundary. Kravet, who has been skiing New Zealand for twenty years, was treated at the Wanaka Medical Centre and transferred to Dunedin Hospital. [Toby, we are sorry to hear this and wish you a full recovery!]

And last but not least, the following:

Construction of North Korean leader Kim Jong-un's ski resort, the Masik Pass Skiing Grounds, was delayed by 16-inch torrential rains this summer. The rains caused mudslides and flooding – due partially to the clear-cutting of trees for ski runs – causing blocked ditches and damaging portions of the resort. Then the Swiss government refused to sell chairlifts to the North Koreans – banning the export of chairlifts to North Korea, after they attempted to buy a $7.57 million chairlift system. Then,

Chang Ung, a North Korean International Olympic Committee member, suggested that North Korea's Masik Ski Resort could co-host the 2018 Olympic skiing events with Pyeongchang, South Korea, according to Reuters. We understand that the Pyeongchang 2018 organizing committee basically responded with a high diplomacy version of "Say What?"
