NEW MEETING LOCATION!!!

THE OCTOBER MEETING WILL BE HELD AT SYLVIA'S RESTAURANT, 5115 NE SANDY BOULEVARD, PORTLAND, 503-288-6828; OUR ROOM IS ON THE LEFT THROUGH THE LOUNGE - FREE PARKING IN REAR

PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL MONTHLY MEETINGS ARE "OPEN," AND PARTICIPATION BY CLUB MEMBERS IS ENCOURAGED!

[GOURMET STUFF PIZZA HAS CLOSED!!]

SEPTEMBER GUEST SPEAKER DAVE TRAGETHON

brought us up to date on the goings-on at Mt. Hood Meadows. The biggest news is a new chairlift is going in - the Vista Express - which will take people one mile up the mountain towards White River Canyon, opening up some wonderful terrain, especially beginner and intermediate terrain. Though it was snowing as Dave was talking to us, and it looks like an early winter, he assured us that they will get this lift in and running for this season!

Special pricing on regular and "4x4" ($400) season passes will be available through the end of the Portland Ski Show - November 7. The 10-time passes will be on sale to the public for $330, unless they buy in a group of ten, when the price drops to $295. The $295 price for the 10-time pass will also be valid for everyone purchasing that pass at the Ski Fair on November 9.

There has been some lodge remodeling over the summer: a demo center and repair shop has been added (the "Gear Box"); and the season pass lockers have been moved to the lowest level (an elevator is available). A new learning center called the "Epicenter" will be the central place for everyone desiring to improve their abilities. A new 2-hour class called the "Optimizer" will be offered at 10:00 and 1:00 daily for $35 (minimum 3 people) which will help you learn on the prevailing conditions of the day - whether powder or the heavier version that sometimes prevails on our local mountains. Participants can get a special deal on demo equipment with the lesson - a great way to learn how to use the newer equipment! Children's classes have been broken up into special programs called "Snow Monsters" for the 4-6 age group and "Snow Rangers" for 7-12 year olds. Sundays are "Ladies Day" with lessons and a glass of wine. Also new - if you have a daily lift ticket and want a quick lesson, you can get a group lesson for only $20 for a 90-minute lesson.

Meadows has some new partnerships this year for specialized lessons: The High Cascade Snowboard Camp, which usually operates in the summertime, will be running snowboard lessons at Meadows this winter. For those interested in survival training, the Northwest School of Survival will have a base at Meadows for year round lessons.

Night skiing hours have changed this year, and will start at 3:00 on all days, giving the buyers an hour on the "regular" lifts before the "day" lifts close. Night skiing on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Sundays will close at 9:00 p.m., but it will still run to 10:00 on Fridays and Saturdays. Lift tickets will be $46 this year for "shift" tickets; $51 for day/night tickets; and a $4 surcharge for "peak" days. See www.skihood.com for further details.

NWSCC DUES NOTICES have been sent out to the clubs. Upon payment of your dues, your club will receive the 2004-2005 FWSA-NWSCC membership cards which will entitle your club members to receive all the fabulous discounts listed on the FWSA and NWSCC websites!

ANOTHER WIN FOR NORTHWEST SNOWSPORTS ADVOCATES! The Forest Service decision on Mt. Ashland has been received, and Mt. Ashland has been given approval to construct new base area guest service buildings, more parking spaces, a snow tubing area, and, most importantly, a new quad chairlift serving longer and easier ski runs, all within the Special Use Permit Area. The decision is certain to be appealed, and Mt. Ashland will need support from skiers. A call to action will be published on the Northwest Snowsports Advocates page on the NWSCC website, with a link to the Mt. Ashland website where specific information can be obtained. Every ski area is important; please help!!

While you are enjoying the quality of the Northwest Skiers' Directory, I would like you to be aware that our wonderful Graphic Designer, Leslie Baird, is available for other projects. I have worked with Leslie for years now, and she is highly creative, loves her work, works flexible hours, charges reasonable rates (partly because she works out of her home), and has truly made this Directory what it is today. Leslie may be reached at 503-245-4368 or at leslie@egr.up.edu - I encourage you to call her!
