

ALASKANA SERIES

a series of eclectic beers that speak our language, so to speak

midnightsunbrewing.com

As in all areas of the world, Alaska has its own vernacular – a unique array of terms that describe life in the Great Land. Inspired by these quirky terms, Midnight Sun is presenting some favorites in the form of beer. So whether you live in Alaska or Outside, let your taste buds interpret our language via your glass.

HIBERNATOR:

Alaska's long days in the summer reverse to long nights in the winter. In Anchorage, we enjoy 19.5-hour days by Summer Solstice and, yes, then 19.5-hour nights by Winter Solstice. This extreme transition tends to bring out the "Hibernator" in some of us. This smoked double bock represents the slow, sluggish, sweet and smoky textures of a lazy winter evening. With this beer, we want you to embrace all of the comfort and girth that we put into your glass.
