ALASKA'S MOST WANTED

LINE ■ UP

Midnight Sun crafts some of the most sought-after beer in the world. This ongoing and ever-growing line—called Alaska's Most Wanted—includes creative successes from our themed beer series as well as amazing one-offs. The beers in this line-up will be produced and released as time and tank space permit but they will be repeated.

We hope you love our extra special brews as much as we do. A gracious thank-you to our long time "every weather" Alaska fans for years of love and support. And an open-armed welcome to the new aficionados who are just discovering our very characterful beers.

As second runnings of Barfly Imperial Smoked Stout, Second Hand Smoked Stout picks up the nuances of the rauch (smoked) malt to complement the caramel and roast flavors contributed by dark grains. Pour it into a snifter. Swirl it around. Warm it up. Let it waft. Inhale its essence. Drink it in.

Warning: This could kill you.
