TYPE: DOUBLE DUBEL
BREWED WITH ANCHO CHILIES
AGED IN CABERNET SAUVIGNON BARRELS
CREATOR: LA FEMME

Beer Description:

"Double Dubel" is a playful way to say Quadrupel. This strong dark ale was brewed and aged with ancho chilies, which are the dried version of poblanos. Anchos impart earthy, raisin-y, peppery characteristics but not a lot of heat. The result is a complex elixir that pairs well with rich, spiced foods but can also be savored on its own. Because was aged in French oak Cabernet Sauvignon barrels with ancho chilies for several months before conditioning.

Creator of This Beer:

As VP of Midnight Sun and self-proclaimed "La Femme de Beer", Barb directs beer style and label design of new/series beers; creates events to bolster business that also provide entertainment value and foster community spirit; writes wacky and not-so-weekly ale-mails that can confuse as much as amuse and educate the reader; and promotes all that is MSBC—its beer, food and folks. Barb generates most MSBC propaganda and authors the web site. She is inspired, fueled and awed by the world of beer.

SONG INSPIRATION:

"I'm tired of whys, choking on whys.
I just need a little because, because."
lyrics from Fast as You Can by Fiona Apple
on When the Pawn... LP, released 1999
