

Blushing Pavilion

A temporary artistic intervention into one of the few remaining Edwardian seaside shelters at Palm Bay. It will host an exhibition dedicated to 250 years of the evolving role of landscape and architecture of the Margate seaside in the expression and repression of the body, gender and sexuality, with an emphasis on historically marginalized communities.

The exhibition features historic research, contemporary artworks and architectural observations on the growth and change of Margate Coastal Park.

Day Long Installation

Fr 9th - Sun 11th September

11 am - 6 pm

> BLUSHING PAVILION, open air exhibition by Vividero Colectivo & Sam Causer, Pam Bay Shelter

Events

Sat 10th September

1 - 2 pm

> Panel talk MARGATE'S LGBTQ+ HERITAGE LIVE, at Blushing Pavilion, Palm Bay Shelter

A conversation with Dan Chilcott (Margate Pride 2016), Maria Leiva (LGBT youth group Quarterdeck), Dr Rachael Scicluna (Education and Training Practitioner at Brook) and other organisations working to make Margate a supportive place for LGBTQ+ people.

Sun 11th September

1 - 2 pm

> Picnic and guided tour MARGATE'S LGBTQ+ HERITAGE LIVE: artists and curators of Blushing Pavilion & Margate Pride, Palm Bay Shelter. Bring some food to eat and share.

About

Vividero Colectivo

An open collective, integrated by artists coming from architecture, dance, literature, theatre, visual arts and curating. Its founders Carlos Maria Romero, Óscar Cortés, Sofia Arrieta & Charles González are graduates from the Interdisciplinary Master Studies in Theatre and Live Arts from the National University of Colombia. Their projects often re-claim as cultural heritage historically marginalized bodies and architectural sites.

Blushing Pavilion

Developed 2014 - 2015 during HOME in Cliftonville, a programme of artistic residencies organised by a partnership between Margate Arts Creativity Heritage (MACH), Kent County Council (KCC) and RESORT Studios, funded by Interreg as part of an Inter-regional Culture-led Regeneration (ICR) project, led by the University of Creative Arts.

<http://www.vividerocolectivo.com/#/blushingpavilion/>

Studio Sam Causer

Sam Causer is an architect, academic and activist, working in the fields of public space, conservation and transformation of historic buildings and sites. Studio Sam Causer has been based in Margate since 2009.

www.samcauser.com