

Early Childhood Aftercare Lead Teacher, combined with Early Childhood Aide position for children ages 2 - 6 years old (Full Time)

The Honolulu Waldorf School in Niu Valley is seeking a teacher who loves young children to lead their early childhood aftercare program. The right candidate will have the necessary state credentials to be a lead teacher in an Early Childhood program. Experience working with young children is required and the right teacher for this position will be able to independently run the program with confidence. An interest in Waldorf education and curriculum is essential. Please visit our website to learn more about the philosophy and curriculum of our school.

Responsibilities for creating and running the Aftercare program include: making snack, offering daily movement games and weekly craft activities, overseeing the safety of the children, and maintaining a clean, friendly, and nurturing environment for the children. An assistant teacher is also present when there are more than 8 children.

Responsibilities for serving as an aide include rotating between the preschool and kindergarten classrooms, helping to oversee and care for the children while different teachers go on break. Duties include helping with supervision during outside and indoor play, lunch time, and nap time. Aides also help with cleaning of classroom, changing diapers, and other tasks as directed by the assistant or lead teachers.

Position starts August 9th and ends June 5th, 2016.

Hours: 10:30 - 5:45pm, Mon –Fri., when school is in session.

(From 10:30am-2:30pm, the position is that of an aide in the early childhood classrooms. From 2:30-5:45pm, the position leads the Early Childhood Aftercare program).

Compensation: Pay is $20/hr. Benefits include: Medical, dental, tuition remission for one child, and sick leave.

Qualifications: Meeting state lead teacher qualifications, experience with young children. A TB test and fingerprinting for a background check are required as part of being hired. You must register with Canoes as a Group Childcare Center Teacher to be eligible for the position.
